Seventeen Students Contend For Other Government Positions

White Joseph Brosnan and Thomas Haggerty, the two candidates for the position of Student Government President, try this week to convince the college electorate of their qualifications for the office. Seventeen other men will also seek the various governmental positions. These are: Vice-President, Treasurer, Corresponding Secretary, Recording Secretary, and two Representatives from each class.

The hope to choose one of these students is the Student Government to represent the needs and desires of the Marist College student body. This is in accord with democratic process. If the simple fact of having a large slate of candidates with varied and interesting backgrounds is any assurance of the success of this process, we shall have a most capable student government ushered in this spring.

Candidate Johnson's interest in the growth of a student-faculty relationship, and an acceptance of the responsibility to actively support the Student Government during the upcoming year is Tom's hope that the upcoming campaign will add new ideas which will stir up a greater interest in all aspects of student life.

The evening session, from 7:35 until 9:45, will view: The visit of President Lyndon B. Johnson's interest in the growth of a student-faculty relationship, and an acceptance of the responsibility to actively support the Student Government during the upcoming year is Tom's hope that the upcoming campaign will add new ideas which will stir up a greater interest in all aspects of student life.

Concerning his own platform, Tom said, "I believe that in order to fulfill the demands of the student body, the student government must concentrate its efforts in the areas of developing sports, reorganizing clubs, encouraging the growth of a student-faculty relationship, and an acceptance of authority by individual government representatives."
Beginning Again

```
Last week we met with both Presidential candidates, the effort of forming an opinion of their campaign. As a result of these meetings, the PCCN Committee has decided to support Tom Telford.

```
The main point of Mr. Haggerty's platform seems to be the creation of more responsible student government. This would be accomplished by the formation of a 'senior committee,' which would have the power to make decisions on student issues. The PCCN Committee believes that this would be a good step forward.

...handle the job; but, in relation to Mr. Brosnan's proposals, we must remember that we are fighting for the future of the Marist College student body. These will be your representatives for the next year, and without their support, the future of the student body is in danger.

Mr. Barnes was a good representative, but his proposals for the future of the Marist College student body are not as far-reaching as Mr. Haggerty's. Without the support of the student body, the future of the college is in danger.

```
These proposals are as follows: first, a new curriculum that would prepare students for the future; second, a new student government that would be more responsible; and third, a new student body that would be more involved in the college's activities.

```
To this we must add the fact of tenure. For a student to enter Marist, he must be on a full-time basis. For a student to enter for the first time, he must be able to attend for the first time. For the first time, he must be able to make the most of his education.

```
In conclusion, we must support Mr. Haggerty's proposals. These will be your representatives for the next year, and without their support, the future of the Marist College student body is in danger.
```

```

```
Ed. Note: We would like to point out that the above proposals are not yet official. They are subject to change.
```

The student body has the power to make the final decision. We urge all students to attend the next meeting and vote on these proposals.

A Brief History Of Marist College

The Marist Brothers Are Celebrating Their 150th Anniversary, They Have Made Great Progress In Poughkeepsie In The Past 60 Years.

From the University of the Holy Cross, the Brothers were searching for a piece of property in the United States large enough to serve as a state on the outskirts of Poughkeepsie, instead of sending them to Canada. Several obstacles had to be made to the house to get too far until the appointment of the late Bro.-Francis McDonnell, coadjutor bishop of Washington, D.C. With his assistance, Secretary of the Catholic University of America, Mr. Spellman, presided at the ground breaking ceremony for Donnelly Hall in 1958.

A building program had been begun in 1957 under the direction of the late Bro. Francis McDonnell, coadjutor bishop of Washington, D.C. With his assistance, Secretary of the Catholic University of America, Mr. Spellman, presided at the ground breaking ceremony for Donnelly Hall in 1958.

Quo Vadis?

The People's Choice

By J.J. O'Connell

The time for change has come before, during and after any national election. It is not quite beginning to recognize, but rather the polls. The political events of today are not enough. There is no room for action. There is no place for action. The time for change has come before, during and after any national election. It is not quite beginning to recognize, but rather the polls. Track Marks New Marist Sports Dimension

Outdoor Team On Their Own

February 15 marked a new dimension for Marist in the field of sports. The formation of an outdoor track team took the place of a still-unfounded indoor team. The team's first three-mile workout is scheduled for Saturday, February 17, when Charlie DiSogra and John Forbes, who are involved in track, will overcome the hazards of early spring weather and gain momentum. Obtaining plans for an indoor track was in mind, the team investigated with the help of both Bill Dourdis and Ed Walser, Art Quinzelburn Bill Douglas and Bill Watson. Their high school records are impressive.

The two-mile relay is composed of Joe Koeth, Phil Caprio, Larry Dolley (sweep), Andy Samuel, and John Consel. The four-mile relay team consists of Vernors, Bill Eathill, Joe Coll, and John Consel. Good men for the field events are Joe Coll, Dolley, Larry Caprio, Brian O'Connell, and Bob Montgomery. There are many others who could be mentioned also.

We must stress the need for everyone to have signed up and come out and work hard, if you have not already. Have you signed up? Your contributions will be vital to the development of indoor-outdoor track and field programs. The track team will soon have an indoor-outdoor track team, but they need your support if not your participation.

The possibilities of having track meets with such colleges as New Palz, St. John's, and Mount St. Mary's are in the air. Both will be appreciated.

For First Victory

Wrestlers Pin Yeshiva

Victory - How sweet it is! Our first victory, team, victory, on Monday, February 13, against Yeshiva University. It was a long time coming. Marist wrestled in the best style, beating their opponents by a 25 to 13 score.

Things started off on a high note for Dan Kuffner, who pinned his opponent in the second period. But had to be fast for the past three weeks, with several matches after school. He evidently has recovered completely. A win in this match showed great determination and his experience, speed, and agility proved to be the difference.

Although, he didn't win, Carl DeCabooter was still 22 points, a score. Fiore Listro pinned his opponent in the second period. The match lasted 13 points. He pinned his opponent. The match was 15 to 13. At the end of the first period, and things didn't look too bright. But In the second period saw a number of reversals, and for that the match was

The half-mile-relay has Den Dell, (discus); Larry Boland, (high jump); and John Goegels, (pole vault). There are many others who could be mentioned also.

The off-season relay team boasts of Mike Hackett, Sandy Hesse, Katrina S. Jelinek, and John Forbes, who were then 2% out of Georgetown. Mike Hackett suffered a broken leg, and John Forbes' leg was injured during the meet. In his place, Andy Sahtuli and John Goegels.

The wrestling team came up with its first victory on Monday, February 13, against Yeshiva. The team was led by Andy Sahtuli and John Goegels. The team is still in training.
