Students To Survey Inter-House Council:

“Freeze Student Funds”

Campiliii Terms Request “Destructive”

By Rich Sellers

A lecture on the Equal Rights Amendment was given on Tuesday evening, October 15, in Shepard Hall. About 150 students attended the explanatory lecture given by Mr. Steve Lipton, a graduate of Columbia Law School.

The Equal Rights Amendment, which will be on the ballot this November, states: “Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or any State on account of sex.”

The amendment is to be voted on under the terms of the Nineteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution. It would give the women’s equal standing with men in the eyes of the law. It is needed to clarify the law and end the inconsistencies in court decisions involving sex discrimination.

Personal privacy and private relationships between individuals would not be affected in any way. Similar provisions in fifteen other state constitutions have not disrupted family life. Laws based on real physical differences between men and women would still be valid.

Opponents of the proposed amendment argue that the amendment is not needed because legislation “already prohibits sex discrimination in employment, extension of credit, housing etc. It might affect the traditional role of women as homemakers and threaten present family support obligations. It is uncertain how far the courts would go in interpreting this amendment. Single-sex schools, colleges, clubs, dormitories, toilet facilities, etc. might be prohibited. Preferential treatment of women would be ended.

Locally, the supporters of the amendment are organized into the Mid-Hudson Coalition for the Equal Rights Amendment and the opponents call themselves “Operation Overthrow the ERA Movement.”

At the close of the meeting, six students signed permission slips for their names to be used by supporters of the amendment in local newspapers urging the passage of the amendment.

Sexuality Day Set

A Symposium on Human Sexuality will be held Tuesday, November 11, 1975. Sponsored by the Counseling Center and Campus Ministry, the Symposium will begin with a panel discussion: “The Sexual Revolution — Has There Been One?” Chaired by Dr. Ralo Benis, with panels from various professional disciplines, the discussion will be held at 3:00 p.m. in Fireside Lounge.

At 7:30 Dr. Donald Bean will speak in the theater. His topic: “Let’s Talk About Sex.” Dr. Bean is Co-Director of the Sexual Therapy Center at New York Medical College, as well as Assistant Professor and Director of Psychosomatics, Department OBS-4AN at the New York Medical College.

The meeting was organized by the Counseling Center and Campus Ministry. The Symposium will be followed by workshops in the dormitories designed to give students a chance to discuss issues raised during the day, to ask questions and probe further into the area.

Library to Feature “Tattle Tape”

By Claudia Butler

The new Library in Fontaine will be equipped with the 3M “Tattle Tape” security system. This system, the most widely used in the country, will cost approximately $18,000 to install. The system will pay for itself in a book that would otherwise be stolen. The Mist Art library has an estimated $2,000 to $3,000 worth of books stolen every year, said Vincent Tuscato.

The books will be treated in such a way that if a person leaves the library without having checked out a book, an alarm will go off,” explained the Director of Learning Resources.

Although the system will reduce the casual theft of books, it may present another problem. “In the past, if a person took a book without having the proper authorization, the Mist Art library has an estimated $2,000 to $3,000 worth of books stolen every year,” said Vincent Tuscato.

The books will be treated in such a way that if a person leaves the library without having checked out a book, an alarm will go off,” explained the Director of Learning Resources.

Although the system will reduce the casual theft of books, it may present another problem. “In the past, if a person took a book without having the proper authorization, the Mist Art library has an estimated $2,000 to $3,000 worth of books stolen every year,” said Vincent Tuscato.

The books will be treated in such a way that if a person leaves the library without having checked out a book, an alarm will go off,” explained the Director of Learning Resources.

Although the system will reduce the casual theft of books, it may present another problem. “In the past, if a person took a book without having the proper authorization, the Mist Art library has an estimated $2,000 to $3,000 worth of books stolen every year,” said Vincent Tuscato.
The Right Thing To Do?

To the charge of the CIRCLE editors, a threatened financial “freeze” (through a protest campaign) was to be a response to the action of a threatened financial “freeze” by the Concordia editors. The threatened financial “freeze” was caused by the Concordia editors’ belief that the school was not adequately funding the journalism program. The “freeze” would have been to bring to a halt all editorial activity and prevent the publication of any new issues until the financial situation was resolved. The editors believed that their work was vital to the community and that it was unfair to have to stop their work due to a lack of funding.

The CIRCLE editors believed that the school was not adequately funding the journalism program and that the threatened financial “freeze” was a threat to their ability to continue their work. They believed that their work was important to the community and that it was unfair to have to stop their work due to a lack of funding. They sought to employ a different approach to the situation, which was to bring to a halt all editorial activity and prevent the publication of any new issues until the financial situation was resolved.

Kicked For A Loss

Two weeks ago during Parent’s Weekend, the Marist College football team lost to St. John’s University, 29-0. The loss was a disappointment for both the team and the fans. The team had been undefeated for two weeks after winning over Fordham University the previous Saturday. The loss was a setback for the team, who had been looking forward to the game.

The team had been playing well, and the fans were excited about the possibility of the team winning the conference championship. The loss was a setback for the team, who had been looking forward to the game.

Present Tense

Ricciotti Youth Debate (RSTD), a national program of public speaking activities in New York state, announces the continuation of its renowned three-week summer camp. This year, the camp will be held on August 3rd to August 27th, at the intersection of 123rd Street and the Henry Hudson Parkway in the Bronx.

The camp is open to all high school students who are interested in public speaking activities. The camp will provide participants with the opportunity to develop public speaking skills, enhance their confidence, and gain valuable experience in public speaking.

The camp will be led by experienced and dedicated instructors, who will work closely with the participants to help them develop their public speaking skills.

For further information, please contact the Ricciotti Youth Debate office at 914-741-8888.

Hairy Times Hit Marist

The C.U.B.S. Social Committee, headed by chairman Jim Brownback, is sponsoring "Hairy Times," a social event on Monday, November 10th. The event will be held in the Fireside Lounge at 9:00 p.m.

The event will feature a prize-winning presentation of "Hairy Times," a social event on Monday, November 10th. The event will be held in the Fireside Lounge at 9:00 p.m.

Lewie To Revive Literary Guild

Beverage Discount Liquors

Lowenbrau 12 Oz. Cans

$1.21

Italian Lambruso

99c

Discount Liquors

Sale Ends Nov. 8

1.99 Value

Liquorama

Next To Shoprite

33,500,000

Unclaimed

Scholarships

Over $33,000,000 in unclaimed scholarships, grants, etc., are currently available to students who are not aware of their rights to these funds.

For further information, please contact the Unclaimed Scholarships Office at 914-741-8888.

Rocking Horse Ranch

Free Mixer For You

And Our Visiting Group Of Girls

Call 691-2927

We're On Vineyard Ave. In Highland, Just Across The Bridge
High On Sports

pace Stops Vikings

By Thomas McTernan

Pace quarterback Stu Shepard scored on a one-yard plunge that hit Log Fest in the end zone for two points late in the third quarter to give the Setters an 8-7 upset win over fifth-ranked Marist on Saturday, as the Vikings had buried Concordia 40-7 the previous week. The two in only team this year to topple the Vikings was the Pace defense limited Marist to 142 yards rushing and picked off two passes.

"We knew they were overpowered and our scouting report," said head coach Ron Levine, "but we moved the ball and hit the run game and covered the corners." He also pointed out that the team was able to put its four days preparing for an offense against the game. Marist dominated the first half, but they found the visitors just one first down and 26 yards rushing and picked off two passes.

Marist Bears Call Title

By Thomas McTernan

Continuing to display a powerful offense and stingy defense, the Marist bearers boosted their record to 3-0 with a 6-1 win, and closed in on their first conference title. The red Foxes 28-0 on a third quarter fork 10 yards to center for a 4-0 lead. The Paul Revere trophy for overall supremacy in the race and the Boston Globe trophy that goes with it.

Harriers Runs Call Title

The Marist College Tennis Tournament sponsored by the athletic department and the C.U.B. closes Saturday morning with the mixed doubles championships. Dolly Russo and Matthew Riviere are the finalists with a 7-4, 6-4, 7-6, 9-10 to the right of the face. The booters close out their 1975 season this weekend.

Stops Vikings

The Marist College Tennis Tournament sponsored by the athletic department and the C.U.B. closes Saturday morning with the mixed doubles championships. Dolly Russo and Matthew Riviere are the finalists with a 7-4, 6-4, 7-6, 9-10 to the right of the face. The booters close out their 1975 season this weekend.