Symposium Held on FDR

By Gigi Birdas

"FDR: The New Deal and The American Economy," the eighth symposium on the era of Franklin Delano Roosevelt sponsored by Marist College in association with the Franklin D. Roosevelt Library was held Saturday, October 4 in the Campus Center. This symposium dealt with the Roosevelt Administration and how it handled the economic challenges during the 1930's.

Dr. Eugene V. Rostow, Sterling Professor of Law at Yale University Law School gave the morning address. Dr. Rostow is well known for his support of the American - African people during World War II. Dr. Rostow spoke of the New Deal Programs and the changes they brought about.

The afternoon panel discussion began at 2:30 p.m. and centered on the economic issues which are of concern today. Dr. Rostow's previous remarks were used as an initial focus. John J. Griffin, Assistant Professor of Economics at Marist College was the chairperson of this discussion. Panelists included: William J. Barber, Professor of Economics at Wesleyan University; Ellis W. Hawley, Assistant Professor of History at the University of Iowa; Robert F. Himmelberg, Associate Professor of History at Fordham University.

The symposium ended with a visit to the Franklin D. Roosevelt Library at Hyde Park. As Mr. Toceano stated, this symposium "Blends the past and present together in a continuing search for understanding and inspiration."

The planning committee included Dr. William D. Emerson and William J. Stewart, director and assistant director of the Franklin D. Roosevelt Library respectively, Joseph Marshall, John Griffin, and Vincent L. Toceano, director. The Roosevelt Symposium is a semi-annual event which examines certain aspects of the Roosevelt era in history. Symposiums in the past have dealt with such themes as "Franklin D. Roosevelt as Businessman and Campaigner," "The Court Packing Plan of 1937: A Reappraisal," and "Eleanor Roosevelt and the Struggle of Women's Rights."

The symposium was sponsored by the New World CIRCLE of students and faculty. The purpose of the symposium Marist College associated itself with the history of this area. This symposium Mr. Toscano feels, is a result of the belief that "continued attention to our past can enrich our understanding of the world in which we live."

Editor Resigns

CIRCLE co-editor, Julie Schott resigned from her position last Thursday night after preparations were completed for the third issue. The announcement came as a surprise to everyone, including co-editor David Lishin. "I'm sorry to lose such a hard worker as Julie, but I think she will turn out for the best, and we hope to see her as a reporter."

Julie's reasons for leaving the CIRCLE, that all are falling behind in all of her courses, and that she didn't have any time to herself for other things she wanted to do.

"When they offered me the job last spring, I was really excited. Working on a newspaper is something I've always wanted to do, but this time, I guess I just took on more than I could handle. If I didn't resign, third year grades would have really suffered."

Last Thursday night, the CIRCLE staff had a meeting to install Mary Beth Pfeiffer as new co-editor. Georgette Birdas will work under her as an associate editor. Mary Beth, a senior English major, has worked for the past year as Layout Editor, and was a reporter in the past. Junior Communications major Georgette Birdas, also worked on the CIRCLE last year as a reporter. As Associate Editor, she will be working directly with the journalism class.

Workshop Slated

In the spirit of the Columbus Day holiday, in the Comparative Language Department is sponsoring a Puerto Rican Cultural Workshop. We all know that Columbus discovered America, but how few are aware that on his second visit to the New World, he set foot on Puerto Rico. Yes, on November 19, 1493, Christopher Columbus, the first European to land in Puerto Rico, declared it a Spanish possession. Later, it was settled on the island, bringing over African slaves. Today, today Puerto Ricans make up a majority of those from three groups: Indians, Africans and Spanish. The culture of Puerto Rico is equally as varied.

There is a lot more one can talk about this rich culture and heritage by attending the "Aprendamos: Cultural Workshop to be held in the Friede Lounge on Wednesday, Oct. 13, between 11:30 - 1:30. It will be presented by Maria del Rosario de Cabo, Director of Comparative Studies of the American Museum of Natural History. She is one of several staff members of the Museum.

Artist Finds Painting "Like Breathing"

By Claudia Butler

To artist Lillian Manney, painting is like breathing. I feel very depressed when I don't paint - it's part of living to me. Lillian Manney's paintings are currently being shown in a fall exhibition sponsored by the Museum. They have been influenced greatly by Picasso and Braque.

Mrs. Manney grew up in New York City. She studied under Robert Win, Moses Soyer and William Kienbusch in New York. Later, she studied under Hans Hoffman in Provincetown, Mass. Besides painting, she also likes to paint for an income because then you paint for the public. Then it would be a chore.

Her current show consists of non-objective and figurative abstract oil paintings. "I love color - intense color. I have a passion for color!"

Abstract art is only one aspect of Mrs. Manney's work. She also paints watercolor landscape and ink drawings.
No Return?

When a student of Marist College commences his 4 year (or thereabouts) habituation of the dorm campus there is what is known as a Dorm Liability Deposit. This deposit, held in the amount of $250 a piece of paper over the entire campus, must be received by the Office of the Residence Hall before any student is allowed to enter the dormitory. This deposit serves as proof that the student has paid for his or her dormitory and that the student is of good moral character. This deposit is often referred to as the "Dorm Liability Deposit." The dorm liability deposit is non-refundable if the student leaves the dormitory before the end of the year.

Letters to the Editors

It’s Your School

To the Students of Marist College

This has been brought to the attention of the Department of Residence Hall Students from the Office of the Residence Hall. The dorm liability deposit, which is being deducted from the students account, must be brought over to the Business Office before the end of the week.

Dorm Liability Deposit

The dorm liability deposit is a deposit that is made by the student and must be brought over to the Business Office. This deposit is then deducted from the student's account. If the student leaves the dormitory before the end of the year, this deposit will be non-refundable.

Clean It Up

During the last couple of weeks the dorm campus has been turned into a garbage dump by some students who are using the dorm as a place to dispose of their trash. This has caused a lot of problems for the maintenance department, who are now forced to clean up the dorm every day. The dorm management is trying to educate the students about the importance of keeping the campus clean, but it is a difficult task because there are so many students who are not willing to follow the rules.

SAC News

Separate from the English Department, the Student Activities Committee plans for the next few weeks include:

1. Periodically, people from the English Department are asked to present their ideas to the SAC. These ideas may be used to improve the quality of the English department.

2. The SAC is considering a proposal to introduce a new English course that will focus on the theme of "living in the 21st century." This course will explore the challenges that students will face as they enter the 21st century and will prepare them for a successful future.

3. The SAC is also considering the creation of a new English club that will meet weekly to discuss current events and issues relevant to the English department.

4. The SAC is planning to host a series of guest lectures by accomplished writers and poets, in order to expose students to a variety of perspectives and styles.

Announcements

Applications and detailed information on the SAC positions are available at the Office of the Dean of Student Affairs. Applications should be submitted to the Office of the Dean of Student Affairs by 5:00 PM on the last day of the month.

Winter Break Announcement

The winter break will begin on December 15th and end on January 8th. During this time, the dorm campus will be closed to all students except those who are participating in the winter break program. The winter break program includes various events and activities that are designed to help students relax and recharge before the start of the spring semester.

New Faces

Metropolitan was very interested

Announcements

There are a number of interesting opportunities for students at Marist College this year in the Department of English. The English Department is currently recruiting for a position as a Teaching Assistant with the Paraphrase Studies Program. The position, which is available for the fall semester, will begin on September 1st. The Paraphrase Studies Program is a unique opportunity for students to learn about the history and development of the English language.

There are also a number of internships available for English majors, including the following:

1. The Internship in Teaching at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in teaching. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

2. The Internship in Writing and Communication at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in writing and communication. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

3. The Internship in Research at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in research. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

There are also a number of internships available for English majors, including the following:

1. The Internship in Teaching at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in teaching. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

2. The Internship in Writing and Communication at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in writing and communication. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

3. The Internship in Research at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in research. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

4. The Internship in Editing at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in editing. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

There are also a number of internships available for English majors, including the following:

1. The Internship in Teaching at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in teaching. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

2. The Internship in Writing and Communication at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in writing and communication. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

3. The Internship in Research at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in research. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

4. The Internship in Editing at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in editing. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

5. The Internship in Publishing at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in publishing. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

There are also a number of internships available for English majors, including the following:

1. The Internship in Teaching at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in teaching. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

2. The Internship in Writing and Communication at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in writing and communication. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

3. The Internship in Research at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in research. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

4. The Internship in Editing at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in editing. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

5. The Internship in Publishing at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in publishing. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

While there are a number of internships available for English majors, the following are some of the most interesting opportunities:

1. The Internship in Teaching at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in teaching. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

2. The Internship in Writing and Communication at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in writing and communication. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

3. The Internship in Research at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in research. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

4. The Internship in Editing at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in editing. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

5. The Internship in Publishing at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in publishing. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

While there are a number of internships available for English majors, the following are some of the most interesting opportunities:

1. The Internship in Teaching at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in teaching. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

2. The Internship in Writing and Communication at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in writing and communication. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

3. The Internship in Research at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in research. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

4. The Internship in Editing at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in editing. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

5. The Internship in Publishing at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in publishing. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

While there are a number of internships available for English majors, the following are some of the most interesting opportunities:

1. The Internship in Teaching at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in teaching. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

2. The Internship in Writing and Communication at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in writing and communication. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

3. The Internship in Research at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in research. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

4. The Internship in Editing at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in editing. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

5. The Internship in Publishing at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in publishing. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

While there are a number of internships available for English majors, the following are some of the most interesting opportunities:

1. The Internship in Teaching at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in teaching. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

2. The Internship in Writing and Communication at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in writing and communication. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

3. The Internship in Research at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in research. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

4. The Internship in Editing at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in editing. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.

5. The Internship in Publishing at the Secondary Teacher Education Program offers an opportunity to gain practical experience in publishing. The internship will run from September 1st to December 15th.
The Marist Vikings took advantage of four Siena fumbles to build a 34-28 margin through the second quarter, but had to struggle in the second half after failing to generate a touchdown in the first half, after failing to generate a touchdown in the first half. Fullback Dave Pilon then scored a touchdown and kicked the extra point giving Marist a 28-0 bulge.

It was at this point that Siena switched "strategy and Caark dropped the snap on fourth down and Marist took over on the Siena 36. Five plays later Pilon scored on a nine-yarder and then kicked the extra point giving Marist a 34-0 lead.

The Marist Coach Rich Stevens.

Marist showed good balance and their two previous defeats. Indeed, Siena had adjustments but we had to be conservative to protect our lead."}

---

By By Thomas McTernan

Boothers "Best Ever"

The team that coach "Doc" Goldman has termed "potentially the greatest in 25 years," was a perfect victory Tuesday with a 49-0 shutout over N.Y. Maritime at Leonidoff Field. The Foxes boot the point-after to give Marist a 7-0 lead. Marist recovered a third quarter fumble on the ensuing kickoff and it was 11-0 after the extra point attempt was blocked.

Siena, winless in three outings, was a three-goal outburst early in the first quarter. John McGraw and Kevin McGhee from the "Booters" Best Ever missed last year's total with three goals, the first in both races by a minute, Al Robinson headed one home and Fermino Naitza scored the second, John McGraw and Kevin McGhee from the "Booters" Best Ever

The Marist Vikings took advantage of four Siena fumbles to build a 34-28 margin through the second quarter, but had to struggle in the second half after failing to generate a touchdown in the first half, after failing to generate a touchdown in the first half. Fullback Dave Pilon then scored a touchdown and kicked the extra point giving Marist a 28-0 bulge.

It was at this point that Siena switched "strategy and Caark dropped the snap on fourth down and Marist took over on the Siena 36. Five plays later Pilon scored on a nine-yarder and then kicked the extra point giving Marist a 34-0 lead.

The Marist Coach Rich Stevens.

Marist showed good balance and their two previous defeats. Indeed, Siena had adjustments but we had to be conservative to protect our lead."}

---

By By Thomas McTernan

Boothers "Best Ever"

The team that coach "Doc" Goldman has termed "potentially the greatest in 25 years," was a perfect victory Tuesday with a 49-0 shutout over N.Y. Maritime at Leonidoff Field. The Foxes boot the point-after to give Marist a 7-0 lead. Marist recovered a third quarter fumble on the ensuing kickoff and it was 11-0 after the extra point attempt was blocked.

Siena, winless in three outings, was a three-goal outburst early in the first quarter. John McGraw and Kevin McGhee from the "Booters" Best Ever missed last year's total with three goals, the first in both races by a minute, Al Robinson headed one home and Fermino Naitza scored the second, John McGraw and Kevin McGhee from the "Booters" Best Ever

The Marist Vikings took advantage of four Siena fumbles to build a 34-28 margin through the second quarter, but had to struggle in the second half after failing to generate a touchdown in the first half, after failing to generate a touchdown in the first half. Fullback Dave Pilon then scored a touchdown and kicked the extra point giving Marist a 28-0 bulge.

It was at this point that Siena switched "strategy and Caark dropped the snap on fourth down and Marist took over on the Siena 36. Five plays later Pilon scored on a nine-yarder and then kicked the extra point giving Marist a 34-0 lead.

The Marist Coach Rich Stevens.

Marist showed good balance and their two previous defeats. Indeed, Siena had adjustments but we had to be conservative to protect our lead."}

---

By By Thomas McTernan

Boothers "Best Ever"

The team that coach "Doc" Goldman has termed "potentially the greatest in 25 years," was a perfect victory Tuesday with a 49-0 shutout over N.Y. Maritime at Leonidoff Field. The Foxes boot the point-after to give Marist a 7-0 lead. Marist recovered a third quarter fumble on the ensuing kickoff and it was 11-0 after the extra point attempt was blocked.

Siena, winless in three outings, was a three-goal outburst early in the first quarter. John McGraw and Kevin McGhee from the "Booters" Best Ever missed last year's total with three goals, the first in both races by a minute, Al Robinson headed one home and Fermino Naitza scored the second, John McGraw and Kevin McGhee from the "Booters" Best Ever

The Marist Vikings took advantage of four Siena fumbles to build a 34-28 margin through the second quarter, but had to struggle in the second half after failing to generate a touchdown in the first half, after failing to generate a touchdown in the first half. Fullback Dave Pilon then scored a touchdown and kicked the extra point giving Marist a 28-0 bulge.

It was at this point that Siena switched "strategy and Caark dropped the snap on fourth down and Marist took over on the Siena 36. Five plays later Pilon scored on a nine-yarder and then kicked the extra point giving Marist a 34-0 lead.

The Marist Coach Rich Stevens.

Marist showed good balance and their two previous defeats. Indeed, Siena had adjustments but we had to be conservative to protect our lead."}

---

By By Thomas McTernan

Boothers "Best Ever"

The team that coach "Doc" Goldman has termed "potentially the greatest in 25 years," was a perfect victory Tuesday with a 49-0 shutout over N.Y. Maritime at Leonidoff Field. The Foxes boot the point-after to give Marist a 7-0 lead. Marist recovered a third quarter fumble on the ensuing kickoff and it was 11-0 after the extra point attempt was blocked.

Siena, winless in three outings, was a three-goal outburst early in the first quarter. John McGraw and Kevin McGhee from the "Booters" Best Ever missed last year's total with three goals, the first in both races by a minute, Al Robinson headed one home and Fermino Naitza scored the second, John McGraw and Kevin McGhee from the "Booters" Best Ever

The Marist Vikings took advantage of four Siena fumbles to build a 34-28 margin through the second quarter, but had to struggle in the second half after failing to generate a touchdown in the first half, after failing to generate a touchdown in the first half. Fullback Dave Pilon then scored a touchdown and kicked the extra point giving Marist a 28-0 bulge.

It was at this point that Siena switched "strategy and Caark dropped the snap on fourth down and Marist took over on the Siena 36. Five plays later Pilon scored on a nine-yarder and then kicked the extra point giving Marist a 34-0 lead.

The Marist Coach Rich Stevens.

Marist showed good balance and their two previous defeats. Indeed, Siena had adjustments but we had to be conservative to protect our lead."}

---

By By Thomas McTernan

Boothers "Best Ever"

The team that coach "Doc" Goldman has termed "potentially the greatest in 25 years," was a perfect victory Tuesday with a 49-0 shutout over N.Y. Maritime at Leonidoff Field. The Foxes boot the point-after to give Marist a 7-0 lead. Marist recovered a third quarter fumble on the ensuing kickoff and it was 11-0 after the extra point attempt was blocked.

Siena, winless in three outings, was a three-goal outburst early in the first quarter. John McGraw and Kevin McGhee from the "Booters" Best Ever missed last year's total with three goals, the first in both races by a minute, Al Robinson headed one home and Fermino Naitza scored the second, John McGraw and Kevin McGhee from the "Booters" Best Ever

The Marist Vikings took advantage of four Siena fumbles to build a 34-28 margin through the second quarter, but had to struggle in the second half after failing to generate a touchdown in the first half, after failing to generate a touchdown in the first half. Fullback Dave Pilon then scored a touchdown and kicked the extra point giving Marist a 28-0 bulge.

It was at this point that Siena switched "strategy and Caark dropped the snap on fourth down and Marist took over on the Siena 36. Five plays later Pilon scored on a nine-yarder and then kicked the extra point giving Marist a 34-0 lead.

The Marist Coach Rich Stevens.

Marist showed good balance and their two previous defeats. Indeed, Siena had adjustments but we had to be conservative to protect our lead."