by Donna Cody

"I don't feel like I'm graduating," says Judy DiScipio, a Communication Arts major. "The hardest thing will be going home for Christmas and knowing I’m not coming back in five weeks." DiScipio is one of approximately fifty Marist students who will be graduating at the end of this semester. There will be no senior week, no caps, gowns, or semi-formal dress. Steve LaMorte was looking for a venue to house the students through their R.D.'s. The students could use these sets by attaching them to a cable hookup found in the lounges. It's a no-holds-barred school," said Lewis. "If you push at the administration, these problems will not be intentional, said Zaccagnino. "In their great excitement about going forward, they leave a gap between what they're doing for the future, and the students that are here now," Zaccagnino said.

Gerard Cox, will be presented tonight, Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m. The lights will dim and the curtain will rise. "Penny Stealers," a play by Dean Gerard Can, will be presented tonight, Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m. The play was written for pleasant entertainment. The proceeds will be collected from the audience and will be given to a local children's organization for Christmas presents.

"Stealers" on stage tonight

Touched for the second time this semester the lights will dim and the curtain will rise on an original play in the Marist Theatre. The students who volunteered to help decorate the stage brings pennies with them. The pennies will be collected and the money will be positive and negative consequences. "The college is taking great advantage of the new policy. In the future LaMorte said that there were plans to install vending machines in all of the lounges as well as the T.V.'s and artwork that had already been purchased. Another change LaMorte noted was the new student center concerning the use of the lounges. "If some students want to get together and say watch Monday night football and drink some beer," they can do it in one of the lounges in their building. LaMorte said that first the seniors that they told won't be here when they're done!" Zaccagnino said. "Progress is great, but don't you get caught up in that excitement too quickly?"

The townhouses are a good example of this, said Zaccagnino. "They told the campus community that they were building them for the seniors and the seniors that they told won't be here when they're done!" Zaccagnino said. "Progress is great, but don't you get caught up in that excitement too quickly?"

On the positive side, Zaccagnino said that the faculty at Marist is excellent, not only because they're knowledgeable, but they really care about the students," said Zaccagnino. "They really get involved."

As a new student center, Zaccagnino said, "I'm trying to enjoy my last few weeks here and get everything out of it before I leave."
Readers Write

A.K.O. No way

True Editor: We were very interested in your response to the issue of our staff writing for the Circle. One point we would like to make is that we consider it a matter of the students' rights to take a stand on the issues of the day. It's true that in the past, the Circle has published articles that were critical of the administration. As a result, the administration's position is more than satisfied. We have taken this issue very seriously and we have been making improvements. The Circle editor has appointed new members to the editorial board to ensure that we are publishing articles that are fair and balanced. We are committed to providing a platform for all voices and we encourage students to submit their work for consideration.

Apothep and Hunger

To the Editor: I would like to address all those students who did not attend the Community Service Project. When I entered the university, I did not really know what it was all about. I was aware of the long road to perfection that lies ahead. But now, I can say that we are making progress. We have received several compliments and positive responses from the staff. We would like to express our thanks to the students and staff who have participated in this project. We hope to continue this tradition in the future.

New York DJ shows tricks of the trade

By Jeanne Maguire

Almost everyone who lives in the New York area is familiar with the name of Pete Fornatale. Although he is best known as a radio personality, Fornatale has also made a name for himself as a successful record producer and business manager.

Almost everyone who lives in the New York area is familiar with the name of Pete Fornatale. Although he is best known as a radio personality, Fornatale has also made a name for himself as a successful record producer and business manager.

Fornatale was born in New York City and began his career in the music industry in the mid-1970s. He quickly rose to prominence and became one of the top DJs in New York and can be heard on the radio station WABC. Fornatale joined WABC in November 1972 and was tasked with creating a new format for the station.

"As soon as I arrived at WABC," Fornatale said, "I knew I had to create a new format for the station." Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.

After several months of research and planning, Fornatale developed a new format for the station. "I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

"I knew that I had to create a new format for the station," Fornatale said.

Fornatale said he was inspired by the success of the show "The Unknown Soldier," which had been a hit on WABC.
Notice Regarding Housing for Winter Intercession
Jan. 4, 1982 - Jan. 22, 1982

All those interested in being housed on campus for the winter 1982 Intercession should come to the Housing Office by December to make these arrangements.

The Room Rate will be $6.65/day. The total amount, covering the length of time you will be on campus must be paid to the Business Office prior to the finalization of any Intercession Assignment.

No Food Services will be provided during the Winter Intercession.

QUESTIONS? Please come to the Housing Office

ASSENZA’S DELI
131 Washington St.
COFFEE-SANDWICHES GROCERIES-BEER
Owned by Sal Asenza
Class ‘72
Open 7 Days a Week
6 a.m. - 9 p.m.
452-4772

Marist grad dazzles Broadway
by Terri Saloff

Originally produced at the Old Coral (now The Huron) in Poughkeepsie in 1979 and later moved to the Manhattan Theatre Club, the Marist production has now moved to Broadway. The Marist University Theatre Club, of which Davis is an active member, wa...
The food problem at home: cafeteria waste

by Joe Nerone

While the Marist community has turned its attention to the issue of world hunger, Seller's food is fighting a food problem of its own. This is a problem that manager Ivan Navas said he is well aware of.

At the marist cafeteria, 14 to 15 percent of the food purchased is wasted, according to Al Oldmixon, manager of Seller's. This compares with a waste factor of 12 to 15 percent nationwide in food operations in schools, Oldmixon said.

"The problem is really one on the management side," Oldmixon said. "It's an operation such as Seller's, he'd be, "to do an average week we dispose of 3,000 pounds of milk are consumed."

Thus that are returned or left at the end of the day, the food is a problem. Oldmixon suggested everyday. That's why, he said, "We get a steady stream of comments from students about the food."

Ways of combating food waste include a survey of the cafeteria of cafeteria waste and a switching of the usual use of the control sheets. "It is an everyday problem with our students," Oldmixon said.

"Economics wins over moral standards," Oldmixon said. "Any product that has been used, whether it be chicken, shrimp, or any other product, is not acceptable."

"It is a problem with our students," Oldmixon said. "We have a lot of complaints from students about the food." He said that only 20 percent of the students become aware it would be wasteful to throw away food.

"Oldmixon gave an example of what was done at lunch recently. He said, "As a junior college it was the policy to provide a meal without individual controls." Oldmixon said that the idea is good but it doesn't work. "We have to have a way to control the food waste," Oldmixon said.

The sheet for a recent dinner showed that 75 percent of the students consumed the chicken, 20 percent had shrimp fried rice and 20 percent ate hamburgers for dinner. The sheet for a recent dinner showed that 75 percent of the students consumed the chicken, 20 percent had shrimp fried rice and 20 percent ate hamburgers for dinner.

Without the Marist community has turned its attention to the issue of world hunger, Seller's food is fighting a food problem of its own. This is a problem that manager Ivan Navas said he is well aware of.

At the marist cafeteria, 14 to 15 percent of the food purchased is wasted, according to Al Oldmixon, manager of Seller's. This compares with a waste factor of 12 to 15 percent nationwide in food operations in schools, Oldmixon said.

"The problem is really one on the management side," Oldmixon said. "It's an operation such as Seller's, he'd be, "to do an average week we dispose of 3,000 pounds of milk are consumed."

Thus that are returned or left at the end of the day, the food is a problem. Oldmixon suggested everyday. That's why, he said, "We get a steady stream of comments from students about the food."

Ways of combating food waste include a survey of the cafeteria of cafeteria waste and a switching of the usual use of the control sheets. "It is an everyday problem with our students," Oldmixon said.

"Economics wins over moral standards," Oldmixon said. "Any product that has been used, whether it be chicken, shrimp, or any other product, is not acceptable."

"It is a problem with our students," Oldmixon said. "We have a lot of complaints from students about the food." He said that only 20 percent of the students become aware it would be wasteful to throw away food.

"Oldmixon gave an example of what was done at lunch recently. He said, "As a junior college it was the policy to provide a meal without individual controls." Oldmixon said that the idea is good but it doesn't work. "We have to have a way to control the food waste," Oldmixon said.

The sheet for a recent dinner showed that 75 percent of the students consumed the chicken, 20 percent had shrimp fried rice and 20 percent ate hamburgers for dinner. The sheet for a recent dinner showed that 75 percent of the students consumed the chicken, 20 percent had shrimp fried rice and 20 percent ate hamburgers for dinner.

Without the Marist community has turned its attention to the issue of world hunger, Seller's food is fighting a food problem of its own. This is a problem that manager Ivan Navas said he is well aware of.

At the marist cafeteria, 14 to 15 percent of the food purchased is wasted, according to Al Oldmixon, manager of Seller's. This compares with a waste factor of 12 to 15 percent nationwide in food operations in schools, Oldmixon said.

"The problem is really one on the management side," Oldmixon said. "It's an operation such as Seller's, he'd be, "to do an average week we dispose of 3,000 pounds of milk are consumed."

Thus that are returned or left at the end of the day, the food is a problem. Oldmixon suggested everyday. That's why, he said, "We get a steady stream of comments from students about the food."

Ways of combating food waste include a survey of the cafeteria of cafeteria waste and a switching of the usual use of the control sheets. "It is an everyday problem with our students," Oldmixon said.

"Economics wins over moral standards," Oldmixon said. "Any product that has been used, whether it be chicken, shrimp, or any other product, is not acceptable."

"It is a problem with our students," Oldmixon said. "We have a lot of complaints from students about the food." He said that only 20 percent of the students become aware it would be wasteful to throw away food.

"Oldmixon gave an example of what was done at lunch recently. He said, "As a junior college it was the policy to provide a meal without individual controls." Oldmixon said that the idea is good but it doesn't work. "We have to have a way to control the food waste," Oldmixon said.

The sheet for a recent dinner showed that 75 percent of the students consumed the chicken, 20 percent had shrimp fried rice and 20 percent ate hamburgers for dinner. The sheet for a recent dinner showed that 75 percent of the students consumed the chicken, 20 percent had shrimp fried rice and 20 percent ate hamburgers for dinner.
Dean's Convocation Day 1981

March 3, 1981

The Convocation was held in intercollegiate facilities, and the Marist College catalog specifically stated that Marketing Research is offered in both the fall and spring. So where were the Marketing Research students?---they were in the same place as the previous year, the same list of courses.

More readers write

To the Editors:

Missed courses

The issue is in response to the spring edition of 1982. There are many students who took courses which were never given. The majority of students who took courses which were never given are not aware of this. The majority of students who took courses which were never given are not aware of this.

Barbara A. Lavio

WMC

More readers write

To the Editors:

Wrong name

Please note that in the next article, "Marketing to Launch Major Co-Op Program," Dr. Florence Memel is identified as the author of this article. She has since been identified as the author of the next article, "Co-op Program," Dr. Florence Memel, "Marist to Launch Major Co-op Program." This is a mistake. The correct name is Dr. Florence Memel.

Barbara A. Lavio

WMC

Students praise speech, topic

By Susan Vassallo

When the word "convocation" is mentioned, the word "cerebral" generally is conjured up in the students' minds. Usually, a convocation is an academic ceremony, which includes faculty, staff, and students gathered in one place to hear a speech or presentation. In this case, the speech was given by Dr. Florence Memel, a professor at Marist College.

Dr. Memel's speech was well-received by the audience, who were not only engaged in the presentation, but also took notes and asked questions. The speech was not only informative, but also entertaining, with Dr. Memel using humor and analogies to make her points clearer.

Dr. Memel spoke on the importance of the convocation, stating that it is an opportunity for the University to celebrate the achievements of its students, faculty, and staff. She also emphasized the importance of the convocation as a time to reflect on the past and look forward to the future.

The speech was followed by a question and answer session, where Dr. Memel answered questions from the audience. The session was well-organized, with Dr. Memel providing clear and concise answers to the questions.

In conclusion, Dr. Memel's speech was a success. The audience was engaged, and the speech was well-received. The convocation is an important event for the University, and Dr. Memel's speech was a fitting conclusion to the day.

The staff of WMCR would like to express their gratitude to Dr. Memel for her time and effort in preparing and delivering her speech. We are grateful for her contribution to the convocation, and we look forward to future convocations.

Barbara A. Lavio

WMCR

More readers write

To the Editors:

Thank you.

Please note that in the next article, "Co-op Program," Dr. Florence Memel, "Marist to Launch Major Co-op Program." This is a mistake. The correct name is Dr. Florence Memel.

Barbara A. Lavio

WMC

Circle Reviews

Hillman and Roberts

Forest Hills Restaurant

Here's yet another review from one of the many cozy restaurants in the area. This time, Marist College Dining Hall was the focus of attention. The hall is well-maintained, with comfortable seating and a variety of food options available. The students were pleased with the quality of the food, and the prices were reasonable. The only negative aspect of the hall was the long lines during mealtime. Overall, the students were satisfied with their dining experience at Marist College Dining Hall.

Commuters: Save 20% Check out meal ticket plans in Dining Hall Only

Commuters & Residents: Save 10% Check out coupon booklets in Coffee, Deli, and Dining Hall

Purchase of booklets may be made in Food Service Office

The staff of WMCR would like to encourage our students to take advantage of the commerical opportunities available to them. We are constantly looking for new and exciting ways to promote our campus businesses, and we are happy to hear from students who have ideas for ways to improve the WMCR station.

Barbara A. Lavio

WMCR

Author decreses treatment of crime victims

By Julie Kesse

A sermon reflects the history of a city in a sermon on an 85-year-old woman who is the mother of the city. The sermon takes place in a church, where the woman gives her son the money for his education. The sermon is about the mother and her son, and the impact of the woman's actions on the city.

Commuters on the right of the car伦are

Commuters: Save 20% Check out meal ticket plans in Dining Hall Only

Commuters & Residents: Save 10% Check out coupon booklets in Coffee, Deli, and Dining Hall

Purchase of booklets may be made in Food Service Office

The staff of WMCR would like to encourage our students to take advantage of the commercial opportunities available to them. We are constantly looking for new and exciting ways to promote our campus businesses, and we are happy to hear from students who have ideas for ways to improve the WMCR station.

Barbara A. Lavio

WMCR

Hillman and Roberts

Forest Hills Restaurant

Here's yet another review from one of the many cozy restaurants in the area. This time, Marist College Dining Hall was the focus of attention. The hall is well-maintained, with comfortable seating and a variety of food options available. The students were pleased with the quality of the food, and the prices were reasonable. The only negative aspect of the hall was the long lines during mealtime. Overall, the students were satisfied with their dining experience at Marist College Dining Hall.

Commuters: Save 20% Check out meal ticket plans in Dining Hall Only

Commuters & Residents: Save 10% Check out coupon booklets in Coffee, Deli, and Dining Hall

Purchase of booklets may be made in Food Service Office

The staff of WMCR would like to encourage our students to take advantage of the commercial opportunities available to them. We are constantly looking for new and exciting ways to promote our campus businesses, and we are happy to hear from students who have ideas for ways to improve the WMCR station.

Barbara A. Lavio

WMCR

Author decreses treatment of crime victims

By Julie Kesse

A sermon reflects the history of a city in a sermon on an 85-year-old woman who is the mother of the city. The sermon takes place in a church, where the woman gives her son the money for his education. The sermon is about the mother and her son, and the impact of the woman's actions on the city.

Commuters on the right of the car伦are

Commuters: Save 20% Check out meal ticket plans in Dining Hall Only

Commuters & Residents: Save 10% Check out coupon booklets in Coffee, Deli, and Dining Hall

Purchase of booklets may be made in Food Service Office

The staff of WMCR would like to encourage our students to take advantage of the commercial opportunities available to them. We are constantly looking for new and exciting ways to promote our campus businesses, and we are happy to hear from students who have ideas for ways to improve the WMCR station.

Barbara A. Lavio

WMCR

Author decreses treatment of crime victims

By Julie Kesse

A sermon reflects the history of a city in a sermon on an 85-year-old woman who is the mother of the city. The sermon takes place in a church, where the woman gives her son the money for his education. The sermon is about the mother and her son, and the impact of the woman's actions on the city.

Commuters on the right of the car伦are

Commuters: Save 20% Check out meal ticket plans in Dining Hall Only

Commuters & Residents: Save 10% Check out coupon booklets in Coffee, Deli, and Dining Hall

Purchase of booklets may be made in Food Service Office

The staff of WMCR would like to encourage our students to take advantage of the commercial opportunities available to them. We are constantly looking for new and exciting ways to promote our campus businesses, and we are happy to hear from students who have ideas for ways to improve the WMCR station.

Barbara A. Lavio

WMCR

Author decreses treatment of crime victims

By Julie Kesse

A sermon reflects the history of a city in a sermon on an 85-year-old woman who is the mother of the city. The sermon takes place in a church, where the woman gives her son the money for his education. The sermon is about the mother and her son, and the impact of the woman's actions on the city.

Commuters on the right of the car伦are

Commuters: Save 20% Check out meal ticket plans in Dining Hall Only

Commuters & Residents: Save 10% Check out coupon booklets in Coffee, Deli, and Dining Hall

Purchase of booklets may be made in Food Service Office

The staff of WMCR would like to encourage our students to take advantage of the commercial opportunities available to them. We are constantly looking for new and exciting ways to promote our campus businesses, and we are happy to hear from students who have ideas for ways to improve the WMCR station.

Barbara A. Lavio

WMCR

Author decreses treatment of crime victims

By Julie Kesse

A sermon reflects the history of a city in a sermon on an 85-year-old woman who is the mother of the city. The sermon takes place in a church, where the woman gives her son the money for his education. The sermon is about the mother and her son, and the impact of the woman's actions on the city.

Commuters on the right of the car伦are

Commuters: Save 20% Check out meal ticket plans in Dining Hall Only

Commuters & Residents: Save 10% Check out coupon booklets in Coffee, Deli, and Dining Hall

Purchase of booklets may be made in Food Service Office

The staff of WMCR would like to encourage our students to take advantage of the commercial opportunities available to them. We are constantly looking for new and exciting ways to promote our campus businesses, and we are happy to hear from students who have ideas for ways to improve the WMCR station.

Barbara A. Lavio

WMCR

Author decreses treatment of crime victims

By Julie Kesse

A sermon reflects the history of a city in a sermon on an 85-year-old woman who is the mother of the city. The sermon takes place in a church, where the woman gives her son the money for his education. The sermon is about the mother and her son, and the impact of the woman's actions on the city.

Commuters on the right of the car伦are

Commuters: Save 20% Check out meal ticket plans in Dining Hall Only

Commuters & Residents: Save 10% Check out coupon booklets in Coffee, Deli, and Dining Hall

Purchase of booklets may be made in Food Service Office

The staff of WMCR would like to encourage our students to take advantage of the commercial opportunities available to them. We are constantly looking for new and exciting ways to promote our campus businesses, and we are happy to hear from students who have ideas for ways to improve the WMCR station.

Barbara A. Lavio

WMCR
Bar patrons disturb North Road residents

Bar patrons disturb North Road residents

by Debra Berger

Marist students have been accused of disorderly conduct during the early hours of the morning, which is causing residents of North Road, Poughkeepsie, to seek ways to combat what they say is an increasing problem. Specifically, the problem seems to be centered around a bar and grill that has opened in the past two years and is located on North Road.

Most of our neighbors across the street have lived here for years and feel very welcome," said Sr. Eileen Halloran. Sr. Eileen said that she has been a member of the Marist College community presently, her son is a student at Marist College, and she has been a faculty member at Marist College for 20 years. She said that she has been a member of the Marist College community for 20 years and has been a member of the Marist College faculty for 20 years.

Mrs. Freeer, 77 North Road, said she has helped prepare for are: a seminar on the history of Marist College and I know her and her staff very well. We've had a very good relationship with Marist College presently, her son is a student at Marist College, and she has been a faculty member at Marist College for 20 years. She said that she has been a member of the Marist College community for 20 years and has been a member of the Marist College faculty for 20 years.

Debra Borger, 77 North Road, said she has helped prepare for are: a seminar on the history of Marist College and I know her and her staff very well. We've had a very good relationship with Marist College presently, her son is a student at Marist College, and she has been a faculty member at Marist College for 20 years. She said that she has been a member of the Marist College community for 20 years and has been a member of the Marist College faculty for 20 years.

Balding Wild Women

Happy Pint Night!!!

Congratulations on a job well done and the future. For more information, call 691-8609. Mom.

Paul.

Love,

Mary Flaherty

H.H.

Bar patrons disturb North Road residents

Bar patrons disturb North Road residents

by Debra Berger

Marist students have been accused of disorderly conduct during the early hours of the morning, which is causing residents of North Road, Poughkeepsie, to seek ways to combat what they say is an increasing problem. Specifically, the problem seems to be centered around a bar and grill that has opened in the past two years and is located on North Road.

Most of our neighbors across the street have lived here for years and feel very welcome," said Sr. Eileen Halloran. Sr. Eileen said that she has been a member of the Marist College community presently, her son is a student at Marist College, and she has been a faculty member at Marist College for 20 years. She said that she has been a member of the Marist College community for 20 years and has been a member of the Marist College faculty for 20 years.

Mrs. Freeer, 77 North Road, said she has helped prepare for are: a seminar on the history of Marist College and I know her and her staff very well. We've had a very good relationship with Marist College presently, her son is a student at Marist College, and she has been a faculty member at Marist College for 20 years. She said that she has been a member of the Marist College community for 20 years and has been a member of the Marist College faculty for 20 years.

Debra Borger, 77 North Road, said she has helped prepare for are: a seminar on the history of Marist College and I know her and her staff very well. We've had a very good relationship with Marist College presently, her son is a student at Marist College, and she has been a faculty member at Marist College for 20 years. She said that she has been a member of the Marist College community for 20 years and has been a member of the Marist College faculty for 20 years.

Balding Wild Women

Happy Pint Night!!!

Congratulations on a job well done and the future. For more information, call 691-8609. Mom.

Paul.

Love,

Mary Flaherty

H.H.

Bar patrons disturb North Road residents

Bar patrons disturb North Road residents

by Debra Berger

Marist students have been accused of disorderly conduct during the early hours of the morning, which is causing residents of North Road, Poughkeepsie, to seek ways to combat what they say is an increasing problem. Specifically, the problem seems to be centered around a bar and grill that has opened in the past two years and is located on North Road.

Most of our neighbors across the street have lived here for years and feel very welcome," said Sr. Eileen Halloran. Sr. Eileen said that she has been a member of the Marist College community presently, her son is a student at Marist College, and she has been a faculty member at Marist College for 20 years. She said that she has been a member of the Marist College community for 20 years and has been a member of the Marist College faculty for 20 years.

Mrs. Freeer, 77 North Road, said she has helped prepare for are: a seminar on the history of Marist College and I know her and her staff very well. We've had a very good relationship with Marist College presently, her son is a student at Marist College, and she has been a faculty member at Marist College for 20 years. She said that she has been a member of the Marist College community for 20 years and has been a member of the Marist College faculty for 20 years.

Debra Borger, 77 North Road, said she has helped prepare for are: a seminar on the history of Marist College and I know her and her staff very well. We've had a very good relationship with Marist College presently, her son is a student at Marist College, and she has been a faculty member at Marist College for 20 years. She said that she has been a member of the Marist College community for 20 years and has been a member of the Marist College faculty for 20 years.

Balding Wild Women

Happy Pint Night!!!

Congratulations on a job well done and the future. For more information, call 691-8609. Mom.

Paul.

Love,

Mary Flaherty

H.H.

Bar patrons disturb North Road residents

Bar patrons disturb North Road residents

by Debra Berger

Marist students have been accused of disorderly conduct during the early hours of the morning, which is causing residents of North Road, Poughkeepsie, to seek ways to combat what they say is an increasing problem. Specifically, the problem seems to be centered around a bar and grill that has opened in the past two years and is located on North Road.

Most of our neighbors across the street have lived here for years and feel very welcome," said Sr. Eileen Halloran. Sr. Eileen said that she has been a member of the Marist College community presently, her son is a student at Marist College, and she has been a faculty member at Marist College for 20 years. She said that she has been a member of the Marist College community for 20 years and has been a member of the Marist College faculty for 20 years.

Mrs. Freeer, 77 North Road, said she has helped prepare for are: a seminar on the history of Marist College and I know her and her staff very well. We've had a very good relationship with Marist College presently, her son is a student at Marist College, and she has been a faculty member at Marist College for 20 years. She said that she has been a member of the Marist College community for 20 years and has been a member of the Marist College faculty for 20 years.

Debra Borger, 77 North Road, said she has helped prepare for are: a seminar on the history of Marist College and I know her and her staff very well. We've had a very good relationship with Marist College presently, her son is a student at Marist College, and she has been a faculty member at Marist College for 20 years. She said that she has been a member of the Marist College community for 20 years and has been a member of the Marist College faculty for 20 years.

Balding Wild Women

Happy Pint Night!!!

Congratulations on a job well done and the future. For more information, call 691-8609. Mom.

Paul.

Love,

Mary Flaherty

H.H.

Bar patrons disturb North Road residents

Bar patrons disturb North Road residents

by Debra Berger

Marist students have been accused of disorderly conduct during the early hours of the morning, which is causing residents of North Road, Poughkeepsie, to seek ways to combat what they say is an increasing problem. Specifically, the problem seems to be centered around a bar and grill that has opened in the past two years and is located on North Road.

Most of our neighbors across the street have lived here for years and feel very welcome," said Sr. Eileen Halloran. Sr. Eileen said that she has been a member of the Marist College community presently, her son is a student at Marist College, and she has been a faculty member at Marist College for 20 years. She said that she has been a member of the Marist College community for 20 years and has been a member of the Marist College faculty for 20 years.

Mrs. Freeer, 77 North Road, said she has helped prepare for are: a seminar on the history of Marist College and I know her and her staff very well. We've had a very good relationship with Marist College presently, her son is a student at Marist College, and she has been a faculty member at Marist College for 20 years. She said that she has been a member of the Marist College community for 20 years and has been a member of the Marist College faculty for 20 years.

Debra Borger, 77 North Road, said she has helped prepare for are: a seminar on the history of Marist College and I know her and her staff very well. We've had a very good relationship with Marist College presently, her son is a student at Marist College, and she has been a faculty member at Marist College for 20 years. She said that she has been a member of the Marist College community for 20 years and has been a member of the Marist College faculty for 20 years.

Balding Wild Women

Happy Pint Night!!!

Congratulations on a job well done and the future. For more information, call 691-8609. Mom.

Paul.

Love,

Mary Flaherty

H.H.
Gasp! Smokers kick it for a day

SAC creates link between students, faculty

Happy Holidays from the Circle Staff

DEPARTURE PROCEDURES

Leave so you can come back!

The college residence halls will close and no services will be available from December 18 to January 24, 1982.

The residence halls will close at 11:00 p.m. on December 18, 1981.

The last meal of the term will be lunch on December 18. Dinner will be served on Sunday, January 24, 1982.

On or before December 18, rooms must be cleaned; all belongings must be taken home, except furniture or those items that can be left in a dresser drawer or in the closet. The college will not assume any liability for lost or stolen or damaged items. (Note: 2, 3, 4 floors in Champagne have received a special reminder. Your department directly affects the ability of students and professionals to complete their work and move toward their own holiday plans; therefore, you are to leave the residence halls in an orderly fashion on the day of your last exam. Remember that the following factors will be central to any decision regarding leaving a room in Champagne residence halls for any reason even if you have registered:

1. Disciplinary
2. Academic Standing
3. Vacating of room on day of their last exam.
4. Condition of room at departure (cleanliness and lack of damage).

Students who have been denied a room for next semester will be notified by January 8, 1982, if they have registered.

If you do not intend to return to the residence halls in January, or if you have been assigned to a different room, please be sure to return your key to the resident director.

Failure to leave your room in a clean state can result in a $25.00 fine.

Failure to leave your day of your last exam can result in low housing priority for fall 1982. As well, an unsanitized early return to the dorms can also result in low priority.

House meetings will take place on Wednesday, December 9, 1981, to clarify these expectations and more procedures. Please watch for announcements.

Each R.A. must inspect each room, file the room inspection form. Students must make an appointment with their R.A. to have their room inspected. Upon leaving, you must secure the room (lights off, appliances disconnected, curtain closed and door locked). Trash bags will be distributed by the R.A. to each resident on December 13 and 14.

The following is the special garbage pick-up schedule for the residence halls during the period from Thursday, December 17 through Friday, December 18 even though students are encouraged to bring garbage to the dumpster themselves:

Champagne Hall
Thursday 12/17
Floors 1, 2, 3, 10 A.M. and 2 P.M.
Floors 4, 5, 6, 11 A.M. and Christmas Noon
Floor 7, 12/18
Friday 12/18
Floors 8, 9
Floors 6, 11 A.M. and Christmas Noon

Lea Hall
Thursday 12/17
Floors 1, 2, 3, 10 A.M. and 2:30 P.M.
Floors 4, 5, 6, 11 A.M. and Christmas Noon
Floors 7, 12/18
Friday 12/18
Floors 8, 9
(Floors) + pick up at 8:30, 7:30 and 6:30 P.M.

Sheahan Hall
Thursday 12/17
Floors 1, 2, 3, 10 A.M. and 1:30 P.M.
Floors 4, 5, 6, 11 A.M. and Christmas Noon
Floor 7, 12/18
(Floors) + pick up at 8:30, 7:30 and 6:30 P.M.

Benzo/Gregory
Thursday 12/17
Floors 1, 2, 3, 10 A.M. and 2:30 P.M.
Floors 4, 5, 6, 11 A.M. and Christmas Noon
Floors 7, 12/18
(Floors) + pick up at 8:30, 7:30 and 6:30 P.M.

Oakwood & Hyde Park
Thursday 12/17
Floors 4, 5, 6, 11 A.M. and Christmas Noon
Floors 7, 12/18
(Floors) + pick up at 8:30, 7:30 and 6:30 P.M.

We encourage you to do your part to make this period enjoyable for all.

The best floors in each building will be ranked for cleanliness and will be awarded $25. Champagne will have 3 best floor awards, Leo 2, Sheahan 1, Gregory, Benzo, Oakwood and Hyde Park will have 1. Awards will be announced next term.

On behalf of all the residence hall staff, we wish you a safe, enjoyable and Happy Holiday Season, and offer our Best Wishes for the coming New Year.

See you in January!
"Beer Bash"

featuring

The Good Rats

and

Prophet

Friday - December 18 in the
Sullivan Community College Fieldhouse

General Admission: $7.00

Tickets Available at the Book & Record on Main Street in Poughkeepsie

— Must be over 16 to attend —

Doors Open At 7:30

Directions: take 87/Thruway South to 17 West - get off at Exit 100. At end of ramp turn left. At light turn right. Follow Route 52 approximately 4.8 miles. Turn right into college.

--

The Marist College Women's Basketball team opened the 1981-82 season with two consecutive routs. The first came against the women from Long Island University with a 127-27 victory. The next game saw the Red Foxes crush the Panthers 81-24, in front of the opening-day McCann Center crowd.

---

Score and win

New wasn’t that easy. I’m just sorry that everyone couldn’t see the Red Fox players or the other valuable prizes that were given away in the CIRCLE contest. SCORE AND WIN.

The final winner is Michael Zaccheillo, who answered four out of five questions to become the last winner of SCORE AND WIN. I would like to thank everyone that tried their best in the contest, and hope that each and every one that did win didn’t spend too much time looking up the answers to the question.

Congratulations to winners Dina McFadden, Michael Zaccheillo, Ed Keppe, Brian Mutham and all those that did have time to playing SCORE AND WIN.

---

Men's basketball

Fri. December 4
Marist Invitational

Monmouth-Fairleigh
Dickinson-West Chester St.

Fairleigh-Dickinson Univ.

Hofstra

St. Francis (Pa.)

Drexel

Hofstra

St. Francis (Pa.)

Fairleigh-Dickinson Univ.

Dicksinson-West Chester St.

Manhattan-Fairleigh

Fairleigh-Dickinson Univ.

St. Peter's

RIVER DISTRIBUTING CO.

Northwest Road

Poughkeepsie, New York

---

The Marist College Women's Basketball team opened the 1981-82 season with two consecutive routs. The first came against the women from Long Island University with a 127-27 victory. The next game saw the Red Foxes crush the Panthers 81-24, in front of the opening-day McCann Center crowd.

---

The Marist College Women's Basketball team opened the 1981-82 season with two consecutive routs. The first came against the women from Long Island University with a 127-27 victory. The next game saw the Red Foxes crush the Panthers 81-24, in front of the opening-day McCann Center crowd.

---

Presented by the Sullivan County College Student Government Association

---

SPC

PLAYER OF THE WEEK

In the player profile of the Women's Basketball section, there is a reference to Lois Ann Hayes. At 5-8, forward Lois Ann Hayes from Middletown, N.Y., is every coach's dream player. One of only four women to have played in all 21 games for the Red Foxes, Hayes was one of the few players who continued to be counted on after her return to the game. Hayes consistency and heads-up thinking is far more valuable than any box-score could show, and for this, Lois Ann Hayes is this week's CIRLE-Page 15 December 3, 1981 • THE CIRCLE - Page 15 PLAYER OF THE WEEK.
Meet Westchester Friday

in home tourney

by Paul Palmer

The Marist-College Men's Basketball team opened its initial season in Division I play two rather sour notes. First, with an opening night loss in an exhibition to Zagreb, Yugoslavia and then this past Saturday at the hands of league foe Siena College. Inzagreb game the difference was in missed foul-shoots. Marist failed to take advantage of the opportunties from the charity stripe while Zagreb did use the gifts. Overall, it was Marist shooting a .483 percentage from the foul line while Zagreb shot at a .565 pace. Many of the misses for Marist came on the first end of 1 and I chances thus eliminating the possibility of two points for the Foxes.

In the home exhibition opener it was the visiting Yugoslavs who decided to set the early pace of the game. They employed a patient, passing offense and a tough rebounding defense to stymie the Marist drives. The taller, older Zagreb showed a bit more poise in some of the situations that were evidently lacking in Marist. In the first half Zagreb led by as much as 13 points, 32-17, thanks to some sloppy passing and careless shooting. Particularly impressive, however, was the quickness of freshman guard Bruce Johnson who tried to lead the Marist attack but often times things just didn't click. The score at halftime was Zagreb 52 Marist 39. One of the more interesting facts of the half was the fact that Zagreb, a team that has committed over 14 turnovers in a half, only turned it over 10 times but used those opportunities to their advantage with many fast breaks and lay-ups. Marist on the other hand committed 14 times to the half and the game.

The second half though things looked a little brighter for the Marist cause as the Foxes came out ready to play and it looked for a while like they now had finally found their groove. A tenacious full-court press and speedy Bruce Johnson helped Marist close to within 8 points at the 14:44 mark and forcing Zagreb to take a timeout. But once again the failure of Marist to hit the free throws cost them several chances at really getting back in the game. After a battle Marist had pulled to within 3 points. Marist had gained this time. (It didn't seem that way as Zagreb came back on the court and proceeded to sink another hoop and pull their lead back to 10). But once again it was Zagreb's press and rebounding that caused the turnover that would lead to a Zagreb basket and a 9:55 lead. But once again it was back and forth and with only 5:48 left Marist was within a point.

Zagreb, however, wasted it's final chances on two turnovers with less than a minute left and a missed free throw. Kevin McGraw gave Siena back the lead at 59-54. But once again it was Siena getting four unanswered points before Keith Denis made three of four from the foul line while a Bruce Johnson steal brought Marist back to within one at 55-54. But once again it was Siena getting four unanswered points before Keith Denis made three of four from the foul line while a Bruce Johnson steal brought Marist back to within one at 55-54. But once again it was Siena getting four unanswered points before Keith Denis made three of four from the foul line while a Bruce Johnson steal brought Marist back to within one at 55-54. But once again it was Siena getting four unanswered points before Keith Denis made three of four from the foul line while a Bruce Johnson steal brought Marist back to within one at 55-54. But once again it was Siena getting four unanswered points before Keith Denis made three of four from the foul line while a Bruce Johnson steal brought Marist back to within one at 55-54. But once again it was Siena getting four unanswered points before Keith Denis made three of four from the foul line while a Bruce Johnson steal brought Marist back to within one at 55-54. But once again it was Siena getting four unanswered points before Keith Denis made three of four from the foul line while a Bruce Johnson steal brought Marist back to within one at 55-54. But once again it was Siena getting four unanswered points before Keith Denis made three of four from the foul line while a Bruce Johnson steal brought Marist back to within one at 55-54. But once again it was Siena getting four unanswered points before Keith Denis made three of four from the foul line while a Bruce Johnson steal brought Marist back to within one at 55-54. But once again it was Siena getting four unanswered points before Keith Denis made three of four from the foul line while a Bruce Johnson steal brought Marist back to within one at 55-54.

Against Zagreb, The Foxes shot .565% from the field, while Zagreb was paced by Vernon Asquith with 20 as Marist with Steve Smith's 20. Daryl Powell added 19 for the Foxes. The return next contest for Marist will be at home Thursday, this weekend. Dec. 4 & 5 as they host Fairleigh-Dickinson, West Chester and Maharatens College.

Farewell

By Barry Lewis

"Boy, this job is sometimes rough." says Bill Travers, Karen Flood, Bill Vining, Skip Stoten, John and Dawn Treglown, Doug Wallner, Dr. Steve Herman, Billie Jackson, and a few of the 63 other people who compile the sports section of THE CIRCLE. It has been my sound policy to bring my readers the facts, and I have never once been afraid to voice my opinion, even if it was the simple peace and quiet that my readers sometimes stretched to hear. This past Thursday, Sports Editor Mike McCarthy said to me last year, "It's all yours, Chris. Might as well get used to the attention." I asked you at first, but soon realized that it is not all mine.

Each Thursday afternoon, piles of THE CIRCLE are placed across the Marist campus, and to many, it is nothing more than a buzz of voices that pass the quick one-year course. It is not the case for the many people involved who compile the sports section of THE CIRCLE. It has been my sound policy to bring my readers the facts, and I have never once been afraid to voice my opinion, even if it was the simple peace and quiet that my readers sometimes stretched to hear. This past Thursday, Sports Editor Mike McCarthy said to me last year, "It's all yours, Chris. Might as well get used to the attention." I asked you at first, but soon realized that it is not all mine.

Each Thursday afternoon, piles of THE CIRCLE are placed across the Marist campus, and to many, it is nothing more than a buzz of voices that pass the quick one-year course. It is not the case for the many people involved who compile the sports section of THE CIRCLE. It has been my sound policy to bring my readers the facts, and I have never once been afraid to voice my opinion, even if it was the simple peace and quiet that my readers sometimes stretched to hear. This past Thursday, Sports Editor Mike McCarthy said to me last year, "It's all yours, Chris. Might as well get used to the attention." I asked you at first, but soon realized that it is not all mine.

Steve Smith's 25 with Keith Denis hitting 14, while Marist shot a poor 13 of 38 in the second half. Siena was paced by Vernon Asquith with 20 as Marist with Steve Smith's 20. Daryl Powell added 19 for the Foxes. The return contest for Marist will be at home Thursday, this weekend. Dec. 4 & 5 as they host Fairleigh-Dickinson, West Chester and Maharatens College.

Farewell

By Barry Lewis

"Boy, this job is sometimes rough." says Bill Travers, Karen Flood, Bill Vining, Skip Stoten, John and Dawn Treglown, Doug Wallner, Dr. Steve Herman, Billie Jackson, and a few of the 63 other people who compile the sports section of THE CIRCLE. It has been my sound policy to bring my readers the facts, and I have never once been afraid to voice my opinion, even if it was the simple peace and quiet that my readers sometimes stretched to hear. This past Thursday, Sports Editor Mike McCarthy said to me last year, "It's all yours, Chris. Might as well get used to the attention." I asked you at first, but soon realized that it is not all mine.