Off campus students question safety

by JAMETOMEO
Ass. News Editor

Mother always said to go everywhere with a buddy and look both ways before crossing the street to be safe.

Under the federal law entitled "Student Right to Know and Campus Security Act", statistics regarding certain crimes reported to campus security authorities must be published for the past three calendar years. During the 1998 school year there were three reported burglary reports and one weapons possession. This is a decline from the two proceeding school years.

Yet students still hear repeated stories of the student who was dragged by a cab and of people who were mugged walking back to Marist at night: "It is enough to make students ask the question, "Am I really safe off-campus?"

It is a question all students should take into consideration before walking past the new black metal fence. Unfortunately for many, becoming a statistic of... please see CRIME, pg. 4

Student responds to article

I am writing in response to the article recently published about Pat Buchanan entitled “Buchanan’s Left” by Derek A. Jones II. Here is my opinion of Buchanan and other possible Presidential candidates. My position is that neither is it nor Buchanan’s other views sound. He did not address some of the views stated in Buchanan’s book. In this book, Buchanan talks about how he visited the United States and the United Nations and his time on the air with his band of cronies. This is Buchanan’s view that I am sure many Americans and foreign names do not agree with. Now I don’t know if this development encouraged the American people to think. Buchanan has denied them from the beginning of his presidency, he did not say that they could tear apart nation-states as we know them. This has already happened in the former Soviet Union and the former Yugoslavia. They no longer exist because of nationalism. The Cold War came to an end. Then came a wave of demands for independence and self-determination. These demands for independence have led to violence, human rights violations, and intervention by outside forces like the United States.

In each of these cases, demands for independence have led to violence, human rights violations, and intervention by outside forces like the United States. A year in the making by NICK ADROMONO

A graduate from high school can’t help but think about the day he left. The room was empty, except for the teacher, the lawyer, and your mom who was in the back seat. But what about me? Are we really that important? I was the only one who graduated. Not the masses. Through the lenses of all my friends, I became something else for them. The year is not about me, because I am sure that a few other people may be saying it too. The excitement was short lived, and the feeling of elation turned into depression. With no place to go but back to the house, I plowed through the front door. They had left me behind.

The question of what to do next is not important. I don’t know what I want to do. I have no direction. I am lost. The question of what to do next is not important. I don’t know what I want to do. I have no direction. I am lost.

It scares me to think of what the future holds. I am not sure if I will ever be happy. It scares me to think of what the future holds. I am not sure if I will ever be happy.

My mailbox is dangerous by KAREN SHUTE

The mystery mail is dangerous. It appeared, wanting to wish me a day. It was not for me, but for her. She wanted to show me that she was thinking about me. It was not for me, but for her. She wanted to show me that she was thinking about me.

I am not sure if I will ever be happy. It scares me to think of what the future holds.

RAW Poem of the Week

By A. Burton

Blinding, she drinks back into her mold,
Sputtering, trying to digest the words,
As I look at her with truth, as I look at her.
As I look at her with words, as I look at her with truth,
As I look at her with beauty, as I look at her with words.

"You should be ashamed of yourself,
You're just a fucking piece of shit,
You're just a fucking piece of shit, you know that?"

I was there, I heard her say that to me,
I was there, I heard her say that to me,
I was there, I heard her say that to me,
I was there, I heard her say that to me.

But I'm not going to let her be afraid of me,
I'm not going to let her be afraid of me,
I'm not going to let her be afraid of me,
I'm not going to let her be afraid of me.

May I please be left alone,
May I please be left alone,
May I please be left alone,
May I please be left alone.

I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,
I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,
I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,
I'll just sit here.

I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,
I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,
I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,
I'll just sit here.

I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,
I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,
I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,
I'll just sit here.

I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,
I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,
I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,
I'll just sit here.

But I'm not going to let her be afraid of me,
I'm not going to let her be afraid of me,
I'm not going to let her be afraid of me,
I'm not going to let her be afraid of me.

May I please be left alone,
May I please be left alone,
May I please be left alone,
May I please be left alone.

I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,
I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,
I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,

I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,
I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,
I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,

I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,
I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,

I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,
I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,
I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,

I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,
I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,
I'll just sit here, I'll just sit here,

Senior captain Nelson bolsters Red Fox defense

by KANNA MARAZITZ

Your team is leading 17-0 with under a minute left in the fourth quarter. It's blowout time. You've already contributed the ball 50 yards in the last 15 minutes. You've punched three out of 15 and 7 yards to bring your team down in scoring.

Your play is incredible. You don't need to be in The Time Zone to contribute.

You're a 200-pound Massachusetts native. Nelson said he has had to continue to work hard in order to realize his dream.

"I am trying to study a lot more this year," Nelson said. "It's important to have a good attitude. If you don't have a good attitude, you can't excel."

He has been a captain for the past three seasons and he is one of the few returning defensive players.

Nelson said he believes the team will win.

"I really only did it because it was a good season," Nelson said. "I really think we can make a good run at the championship this year."

After the Longhorns successfully executed their option offense, the Red Foxes were forced to face a Michigan State team that has dominated the Big Ten.

What a difference a year makes.

After defeating Rider and Loyola to go 2-0 last weekend, the Marist soccer team improved its season record to 7-2, equaling last season's entire win total.

The Red Foxes took care of Rider last Friday, 2-0. They then won 1-0 in the opening game of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) last weekend, pushing their winning streak to the second straight victory.
