Mr. Catanzaro Named Coach

by Charles A. Counsil

Brother Linus Richard, President, has announced that Mr. Joseph Catanzaro, coach of the Poughkeepsie High School crew for the last ten years, has agreed to serve as coach for the newly-formed Marist crew. Mr. Catanzaro will continue with the high school in an advisory capacity, while at the same time he will assume his duties as full-time coach here at Marist.

This move demonstrates the administration's realization of student interest during crew's fall tune-ups, and its willingness to provide the financial support needed to make college crew a varsity sport.

The administration wishes to express its thanks to Al Eckert for the assistance he has given the college in organizing the sport. Mr. Eckert, president of the Mid-Hudson Schoolboy Rowing Association, served as volunteer coach during the fall, and made available to the college a shell and launch. Although this loan of equipment was much appreciated, Brother Linus indicated that the college hoped to obtain its own equipment in the near future. Mr. Catanzaro is busy contacting other colleges and sources of rowing apparatus to implement this plan. Thus far, rowing machines have been obtained, and will be in operation tomorrow, in St. Mary's Recreation Hall.

Recent events have bolstered Mariot College's position among college circles in Delaware County. Foremost among these events was Emil Castroles's Capturing of the lead in an upcoming Vassar College Production. The play, August Strindberg's The Pelican, calls for two male actors. After an open try-out, Emil was awarded the male lead. Emil is a popular figure here at Mariot and very active in student activities. Besides taking this part at Vassar, he is serving as a director for the year's Mariot College Theatre Guild production of The Wise Man Has Spoken.

The effects of this accomplishment go much further than would appear on the surface. It is through deeds such as these that friendly exchange programs of all types may one day be worked out among local colleges.

Victory Dance

This Saturday night, the Freshman class will hold their first dance of the year. Dancing to the music of a trio and soliciting merriment are plans for the evening's festivities, which are scheduled to begin at nine and run until one at the local Knights of Columbus Hall. Donations are $1.00, and include refreshments.

This dance is being held in honor of the basketball team.

Does John McLaughlin have something in common with Errol Flynn? In Vanity Fair, having hallucinations this week or does he always see trees protruding from car trunks? Errol will be the one to watch this week. You have changed your plans for Philosophy class with Dave Reiter. We would appreciate it if you would knock a dime off the price of a house. Ed Hallett is true your nickname is "The Pathfinder"? Jimmy McLemore started juggling school and work last week. Ely Tippens, on the other hand, has not had the rest of us.

Dave Flynn is getting a lifetime membership to Vice Tennyson's... Well, that's another story. We find Mary with her mind. Larry, do you have a hundred in quarters, dimes, and nickels? Charley Courtilt doesn't seem to have an ear for poetry, ya know. Dave Smith, you still can't pull the pool with Reingold. Who's taking it out this weekend, boy...? John de la Rosa found the secret of this week's pool thanks to a rather large stomach. Will Jack Callahan please buy a new pair of glasses? Will Bill Martin ever start his fishing trip to Philadelphia?... Gary Smith, this column wishes you would have your shoes untied. Jan Roman has been asked how many times a day he shaves. Jimmy Callahan is hard to recognize because of his new haircut. Mike Mihalali, does the name "Reggie grazer...? Why has Jimmy Pizzani been singing the "lives for the past two or three days...? In closing, we wish to congratulate the upperclassmen for their magnificent turnout for intramural basketball. Watch your step, we are always looking for new material.

After the first week of competition, the four teams and day hop I teams are in a tie for first place, each team having a respectable 3-1 record. Last week's games saw the upperclassmen go down in defeat to the day hop I team by a walloping 90-60 score. Joe Spada led the day hop attack with 16 field goals and three foul shots for an intramural record of 35 points. Fred Weiss figured big in rebounding for the winners. High man for the losers was Jim Holoman, who threw in 20 points.

Yesterday the upperclassmen broke into the win column by defeating the day hop II team in overtime 54-47. Woods and Donnell were big men for the victorious — each scoring 16 points. Joe Guadino contributed 18 points for the losers. Today the day hop teams will have a chance to play and Wednesday the upperclassmen take on the boarders.
