Marist Crews Sweep LIU

The Marist crew brought college racing back to Regatta Row with an impressive pair of wins over the Varsity and JV boats of the State University of Long Island. These victories give the crew a phenomenal 3-1 record for its first year in competition, and are an obvious testimony to the ability of both Coach Joe Catanzaro and the young oarsmen, only one of whom is to be graduated this June.

Last Saturday was a cold, gloomy day, with overcast sky and biting wind that tensed both the oarsmen and the many spectators gathered along the course of the race. After a false start and a seemingly interminable wait to have a seat in one of the shells repaired, the Varsity mile and one-half event got under way, with Marist perhaps inching out a bit, taking advantage of Long Island’s wanderings on the unfamiliar waters. At the half-mile mark the two boats had a rather close brush, locking and splintering oars for a half dozen strokes, but The Red and White gave a hard ten and pulled away with surprising ease, to finish with a strong sprint a boat-length ahead of the Long Island crew.

It is interesting to note that the spectators on hand were not only our college men, but also included many from the community interested in viewing the first collegiate race held on the Hudson in twelve years, and is an unmistakable sign of a growing area interest in Marist College and its crew.

This Saturday, May 6, Marist is entering the Quinsigamond Cup Regatta. The crew will oppose Amherst, American International College, Trinity College, and Clark University. This will be Marist’s first big break on the national athletic scene since the race will be written up in SPORTS ILLUSTRATED. Coach Catanzaro is optimistic about his boys chances of leaving a wake for some of our opponents to row through.

Junior Dance Planned

Charles Council, chairman of activities for the Junior’s Day of the Spring Weekend, has announced that the highlight of the day’s events will be a semi-formal, non-floral dance to be held at the Poughkeepsie Inn, on Saturday evening, May 29th, from 9 PM until 1 AM.

The dance will take on special importance because the results of elections for the incoming Student Council will be announced at this time, and arrangements have been made to present the new members with their official pins. The new President then will be escorted to the chair of honor and his date will become the reigning “First Lady” of the Spring Weekend.

Chairman of decorations and favors for the dance, James Coombs, has announced that final arrangements have been completed for the purchase of favors, which will be stuffed red foxes with ribbons tied around their necks saying: "Marist College Spring Weekend 1961."

The Junior Semi-Formal is only one phase of the coming Spring Weekend, which will also include several other activities. The Freshmen are sponsoring a casual dance on Friday night at the Polish Club in Poughkeepsie. The Sophomores will hold a clam bake on Sunday at Flatterkall to round out the weekend.

In order for this event to be a success it needs the support of all the students. Get your tickets now! They are on sale every Friday in the lounge.
Letters to the Editor

The school crest is divided into three parts: the first section has a ball, the second depicts an Indian and the third has an open book. Most members of the faculty and student body know the significance of the Indian and the book. In asking various persons the reason for the inclusion of the ball the only fact that seemed of general knowledge is that the ball is symbolic of a ball here on campus. No one knows anything about it except that it has been around the college for about thirty or forty years, Some do not even know where the ball itself is.

The including of the ball in our crest, has made the ball a part of our tradition. It is something that people in the future will ask about. They will inquire about its history. They will ask how the ball came to be here and why. Some will want to know its purpose.

If the present situation is allowed to continue the only answer to the above questions will be that the ball has been around for sixty or seventy years, and that is only if it doesn't rust out before then. The clapper is growing thin as the flakes of rust fall off.

The two wooden claws now used as a stand are broken and will soon start to rot. The ball itself could use a good chipping and painting. Even all of this will not save it.

In Campus...

by LOUISE TILMAUGH and DANIEL VAN BURG

Hey McConkey, how's the Rose's author?
Hey Hanley, what are you standing up for?
Who's growing roses in Room 73?
Does Bobo have a sudden aversion to car horns?
A. Orals, how are things in Labor?
I. Ma., did you ask her out?
J. Pizzari, why do you look so tense after hearing a ball?
B. Girls, who sends you those ash trays from Ohio?

Wednesday, there's a guy with a rope and cross looking for you.
M. Laffin, we hear you're called the Susan Hogg of the diamond.
G. Halls, where are the A.T. girls hanging out?
John do in Rose, who's your boyfriend?
Hey Martin, don't worry, faith can move mountains.
Leroy Consolo, nobody moves in on Rahh!
Rumor has it that the bookstore is going bankrupt and will shortly be selling stock.
We hear that the rumor of Bellows Ave has been sealing the walls of Sing Sing again.
F. Bernard, is softball really a woman's game?
So are you looking for a woman in your one man pool project.
Overheard while passing an ice cream truck — "You melt in my arms."
Bob Snyder, look out for the witch hunters.

A word of advice to all those planning to go to Spring Woodstock: Rest up now!

Intramurals...

by Jimm Payzani

Intramural softball got underway last Wednesday with the Freshman Boarders losing to the Freshman Day Hope by a score of 10-5. Gene Spada and Matt Laffin led the attack for the winners. Pizzari and de la Ross paced the losers. The winning battery was composed of Wayne King and Joe Senna. John Rose was the losing pitcher.

Intramural soccer yesterday saw the Upperclassmen upperclassmen blasted the Upperclassmen 11-5. Paul Margentino and Bob Van Aernum led the winners each gathering three hits.

This Wednesday the Upperclassmen are pitted against the Freshman Day Hope. Starting time for all Intramural games is 3:00.

Science Club Presents

The De Vincenzo Society of Mariet College will present its first annual Albertus Magnus lecture to be held Fri. evening, May 15 at 8:00 P.M. in the college gymnasium.

The guest speaker will be the Rev. J. Franklin Swain, S.J., who is an associate professor of Anthropology at Fordham University. Father Swain will speak on the subject of "The Catholic Evolutionist."

All are invited to attend. Bernard Lopez '62, president of the society announces that this would be the first of many such lectures here at Marist College.

School Elections

Elections will be held May 19 for all student council offices and for class representatives. In addition, delegates for the National Federation of Catholic College Students will be selected. The following is a list of these offices to be filled:

President from the Senior Class, Vice-President, Junior Class, Recording Secretary, Junior Class, Corresponding Secretary, Sophomore Class, Treasurer, Sophomore Class, National Federation of Catholic College Students:

Senior deputes, Junior or Senior Junior deputes, Sophomore or Junior. These students wishing to run for Council positions and for the F.N.C.C.C. must have a 1.50 Index and be in good standing with the Dean's office.

The names of all candidates and a list of their supporters must be submitted to William Horan '63, or Frank Kolarick '62 by 4 o'clock, May 8, 1961.

Rules governing the posting of campaign posters are on the bulletin board. A rally has been tentatively planned for Thursday evening, May 19.

(Sp from p. 2) Letters

The reason is because it is allowed to sit outside in the rain and snow. How can we expect it to last when we let it sit around like an old junked car?

This ball is supposed to mean something to us. Does it? If so, then are we going to take care of it? Isn't anyone interested enough to compile a biography of it? Won't someone ever do the one small thing of carrying it inside, out of the elements.

Allen J. Palmer, '61

SPRING WEEKEND—MAY 19, 20, 21
Letters to the Editor

The school crest is divided into three parts: the first section has a ball, the second has an Indian, and the third has an open book. Most members of the faculty and student body know the significance of the Indian and the book. In asking various persons the reason for the inclusion of the ball the only fact that seemed of general knowledge is that the ball is symbolic of a bell here on campus. No one knows anything about it, except that it has been around the college for about thirty or forty years. Some do not even know where the ball itself is.

The including of the ball in our crest has made the ball a part of our tradition. It is something that people in the future will ask to see. They will inquire about its history. They will ask how the ball came to be here and why. Some will want to know its purpose.

If the present situation is allowed to continue, the only answer to the above questions will be that the ball has been around for sixty or seventy years, and that is only if it doesn’t rust out before then. The clapper is growing thin as the flames of rust fall off. The two wooden claws now used as a stand are broken and will soon start to rot. The ball itself could use a good repainting and varnishing. Even all of this will not save it.

---

On Campus...

by LOUIELA FARMOUTH and GABRIO VAN HUREN

Hey McLeary, how’s Rose’s author? Hey Hanley, what are you standing up for? Who’s growing roses in Room 7?

Does Robert have a sudden obsession to color his hair? K. Grady, are you working in the library?

Jim Collins, we hear you’re turning over a new leaf. Better put your book, book together first.

J. H., did you ask her out?

J. Pizzari, why do you look so blue after having a ball?

E.D., who sends you those ashes toys from Ohio?

Mrs. Wilson, there’s a guy with a rope and cross looking for you.

M. Laffin, we hear you’re called the Sun of the diamond, Joey Hills, where are the St. P. girls heading out?

John do in Rose, who’s your Newman? Hey Martin, don’t worry, faith can move mountains.

Leroy Connolly, nobody moves in on Babol. Rume has it that the bookstore is going bankrupt and will shortly be selling stock.

We hear that the tower of Bellows Ave has been sealed the walls of Bing Bing again.

P. Barretti, is softball really a woman’s sport? We see that Dowitt is becoming along in his one-man pool project.

Overheard while passing an ice cream truck: “You melt in my arms.”

Bob Snyder, look out for the witch hunters.

A word of advice to all those planning to go to Spring Weekend: Rest up now!

---

Intramurals

by Jimmy Payzami

Intramural softball got underway last Wednesday with the Freshman Boarders tossing the Freshman Day hopes by a score of 10-6. Gene Spada and Pete LaFlin led the attack for the winners. Pizzari and de la Rosa paced the losers. The winning battery was composed of Wayne King and Joe Senda. John Rome was the losing pitcher.

Meanwhile in the basketball tournament the Uppersclassmen blasted the Uppersclassmen 11-5. Paul Marganito and Bob Van Ewum led the winning battery. Three hits by the losing battery caused the Uppersclassmen going four for four. John Rome picked up his fifth win. The losing pitcher was Dave Garling.

This Wednesday the Uppersclassmen are pitted against the Freshman Day hopes. Starting time for all Intramural games is 3:00.

Science Club Presents The De Vinci Society of Marist College will present its first annual Albertus Magnus lecture to be held Friday evening, May 15 at 8:00 P.M. in the college auditorium.

The guest speaker will be the Rev. J. Franklin Kloster, S.J., who is an associate professor of Anthropology at Fordham University. Father Kloster will speak on the subject of “The Catholic Evolutionists.” All are invited to attend.

Bernard Lopez ’62, president of the society announced that this would be the first of many such lectures here at Marist College.

---

School Elections

Elections will be held May 12 for all student council offices and for class representatives. In addition, delegates for the National Federation of Catholic College Students will be selected. The following is a list of those offices to be filled:

President: from the Senior Class Vice-President: from the Junior Class Recording Secretary: from the Sophomore Class Corresponding Secretary: from the Freshman Class Treasurer: from the Sophomore Class

National Federation of Catholic College Students:

Senior Class: A, B, or C

Junior Class: A, B, or C

Senior Class: A, B, or C

Junior Class: A, B, or C

Students wishing to run for council positions and for the N.F.C.C.A. must have a 2.0 index and be in good standing with the Dean’s office.

The names of all candidates and a list of their supporters must be submitted to William Horan ’63, or Frank Kolarik ’62 by 12:00 o’clock, May 6, 1961. Rules concerning the posting of campaign posters are on the bulletin board. A rally has been tentatively planned for Thursday evening, May 18.

(cont. from p. 2) Letters

The reason is because it is allowed to sit outside in the rain and snow. How can we expect it to last when we let it sit around like an old junked car?

This ball is supposed to mean something to us. Does it? If so, then are we going to take care of it? Isn’t anyone interested enough to compile a biography of it? We can’t even do the one small thing of carrying it inside, out of the elements.

---

SIRRING WEEKEND—MAY 19, 20, 21

---

Vol. I No. 8 May 2, 1961

Reditus Record A weekly newspaper published by and for the students of Marist College on every Tuesday of the school year, exclusive of examination periods.

Editor: Charles Council Business Manager: Masco Gooms Copy Editor: James Callahan Circulation Editor: James Pizzari

Vol. I No. 8 May 2, 1961