McKissick Speaks On Problems With America

Can’t Choose Between Lesser Of Two Evils

Floyd B. McKissick, former national chairman of CORE, spoke last week at Marist College and gave the audience a clear-cut position on the American political and racial scene. He stressed the importance of the Negro vote and said that the current crisis was not a black and white situation, but a more complex one involving economics, business, and other factors.

Mr. McKissick compared the situation with the election of 1960, when a candidate of the type of Mr. Kennedy ran on a ticket of unity and cooperation, and the situation with the election of 1964, when a candidate of the type of Mr. Johnson ran on a ticket of more specific issues.

Mr. McKissick concluded that the situation in America today is not black and white, but a more complex one involving economics, business, and other factors. He urged his listeners to help Mr. McKissick in his efforts to help make America a better place to live.

FDR Symposium

Set October 26

The Fourth Annual Franklin D. Roosevelt Symposium is to be held at the Student Center, Saturday, October 26, from 10 A.M. until 5 P.M.

The theme of this year’s symposium is “Politics and Campaigns.”

The main speakers at the symposium are: Professor Prentiz of Columbia University, who will speak on “The Ups and Downs of Campaigning,” Professor Prentiz is the author of “The New Power of the Small Voter.”

Professor Prentiz is the author of “The New Power of the Small Voter.”

The symposium will be followed by a dinner at 5:30 p.m. at the Student Center.

In an interview with the Circle, Edward Rocke, Chairman of the Campus Life Committee, told the students that the symposium was not a publicity stunt, but a real effort to improve the political climate on campus.

Mr. Rocke said that the symposium was not a publicity stunt, but a real effort to improve the political climate on campus.

Mr. Rocke said that the symposium was not a publicity stunt, but a real effort to improve the political climate on campus.

Committee To Study Role Of Academic Dean

by Thomas Buckley

A few weeks ago School Board of Education recommended the establishment of a dean of the College of Liberal Arts at Marist College.

The beginning of the disagreement between President John O’Shea and the Dean of the College is the result of the disagreement between President John O’Shea and the Dean of the College over the role of the dean.

The beginning of the disagreement between President John O’Shea and the Dean of the College is the result of the disagreement between President John O’Shea and the Dean of the College over the role of the dean.

The beginning of the disagreement between President John O’Shea and the Dean of the College is the result of the disagreement between President John O’Shea and the Dean of the College over the role of the dean.

The beginning of the disagreement between President John O’Shea and the Dean of the College is the result of the disagreement between President John O’Shea and the Dean of the College over the role of the dean.
A Benefit To Marist

Recently a motion was passed by the Faculty Council to withdraw the Marist Club from the University Education Council. The motion, which was made by Professor Scott on behalf of the Faculty Council, was passed by an overwhelming majority of the faculty present. The motion was made in response to the concerns expressed by the Marist Club about the lack of support and recognition given to the club by the University Education Council. The Marist Club has been an active and popular student organization on campus, and its withdrawal from the council is likely to have a significant impact on the campus community. The end of the Marist Club as a member of the University Education Council is a loss for the campus community, and it is hoped that the Marist Club can continue to thrive and grow as an independent organization.
A Benefit To Marist

Recently a notice was passed by the Marist Council to withdraw the faculty from the responsibilities of the Student Council as trustee of the land. I would like to express my concern for the fact that the faculty is being deprived of the opportunity to participate in the student activities. It is important that the faculty should be involved in the student activities in order to maintain the campus's identity. I urge the Marist faculty to reconsider their decision and participate in the student activities.

Choice of Direction

A great number of contemporary writers are querying about "communism" and its influence upon our society. Many feel that the government should be more involved in the direction of society. However, I believe that the government should not be overly involved as it would undermine the free will of the people. It is the responsibility of each individual to choose their own direction in life. The government should provide guidance and support, but ultimate decisions should be left to the individual.

Cynic In Residence

by James Morrison

"Well, boys, what do you think of the new program?" the principal asked, as the students looked up from their desks.

"It's great!" one student exclaimed.

"No, it's terrible," another replied.

"I don't know," said the third student.

The principal smiled. "Well, that's your opinion. In any case, the program will continue as planned.""}

Council Policy

NOTE: development and The Circle is in progress to become a Wild instrument, and providing benefit within this present process.

The Circle will be involved with new areas of interest for the year group. It is going to work at breaking down the particular process.

The Circle welcomes comments, letters, and journalistic activities from the student body. All comments and letters should be left in The Circle mail box - C 207. Letters must be signed.

Finally, The Circle will welcome independent investigations of important student, faculty, and administration issues; and student clubs and the community.

CYNIC IN RESIDENCE

by James Morrison

"Well, boys, what do you think of the new program?" the principal asked, as the students looked up from their desks.

"It's great!" one student exclaimed.

"No, it's terrible," another replied.

"I don't know," said the third student.

The principal smiled. "Well, that's your opinion. In any case, the program will continue as planned."
Reality Or Dream?
by James Parker

Support Your Vikings

RACE: A Difference In Thought
by Peter Walsh

Believe it or else...

The Pleasant Present
by Richard Duke

Responsibility Now

From third year abroad
Open A New Window
by Vincent Bogler

Students Seek
New Housing

The Open House question presents
Mr. Wade?

The Open House question presents
Mr. Wade?

The Open House question presents
Mr. Wade?

If something is a novelty, not exactly)

if something is a novelty, not exactly)

if something is a novelty, not exactly)

if something is a novelty, not exactly)

The Open House question presents
Mr. Wade?

The Open House question presents
Mr. Wade?

The Open House question presents
Mr. Wade?

The Open House question presents
Mr. Wade?

The Open House question presents
Mr. Wade?
Reality Or Dream?
by James Parker

"VIEW FROM BELLE DE JOUR"
Belle de Jour is a very nice looking dedication of a great director's coming of age.

This is a very nice film effect, but probably a film with the perfection of content and character witnessed in "Belle de Jour" but possibly in the 1960s. The film's plot consists of a mixture of events, characters, and situations that move in a linear progression, the role played in the film by Catherine Bouvier, the young, attractive, and talented actress who plays the character of Belle de Jour.

Bouvier's role is at times difficult to understand, but she manages to make it believable. Her character, as well as the film itself, is a sort of fairy tale told using the language of dreams and projections. The film uses the medium of cinema to explore the nature of reality and the beauty of the dream world. Bouvier's performance is a testament to the power of cinema as a medium of expression.

The film is a masterpiece of art and cinema, and truly deserves the accolades it has received. Bouvier's work is a shining example of the power of cinema to move us, to make us think, and to inspire us.
Macalester Challenges Resident Ruling

October 28, 1966

THE CIRCLE

Election News

Students For O'Dwyer Committee Formed

A Students For O'Dwyer committee has been created at Macalester by the classes of '67, ‘68 and ‘69. The committee was formed on the recommendation of the Resident Government. The committee was formed to support the Resident Government's goal of maintaining a policy of non-coercion in the Resident Government.

The committee consists of students who believe that the non-coercion policy is necessary to maintain a healthy and democratic environment. The committee aims to encourage open dialogue and respect for each other's views.

Humanities House Plans Lecture

The Humanities House will host a lecture in the fall, featuring a presentation on the history and significance of the American Civil War. The lecture will be given by a noted historian to engage students in an exploration of this pivotal period in American history.

TV Show Starts
New Trends

The latest installment of the popular TV show features new and innovative trends in entertainment. The show showcases a variety of talented performers, including a diverse range of musical styles and dramatic performances. The new episodes promise to offer a fresh and entertaining experience for viewers.

In Memoriam

Phanees was one of the American students and faculty who died tragically in the recent naval aviation. Phanees was well known for his passion for education and his dedication to the community. His contributions will be deeply missed by his peers and students.

Chez Padres

Each year, thousands of students consider Chez Padres as their favorite dining option. This year, the restaurant has introduced new dishes and updated their menu to cater to the diverse tastes of its patrons. Chez Padres offers a variety of authentic Mexican dishes, including tacos, burritos, and enchiladas, as well as a selection of drinks and desserts. The restaurant is known for its friendly and welcoming atmosphere, making it a popular destination for students and faculty alike.

Appalachia vs. Council

The Student Government, working on a legislative system of priority for the next fiscal year, has invited the Appalachian Council to participate in the legislative process. The Appalachian Council has expressed interest in being involved in the legislative process, and the Student Government is actively working to establish a system that accommodates the needs of all involved.

Placment Notes

If you have not received your copy of the Placement Office File Monitor, please come into the office as soon as possible.

Appalachia

The Appalachian Council, working on a legislative system of priority for the next fiscal year, has invited the Appalachian Council to participate in the legislative process. The Appalachian Council has expressed interest in being involved in the legislative process, and the Student Government is actively working to establish a system that accommodates the needs of all involved.

Phanees

Phanees, a student at Macalester, was tragically killed in the recent naval aviation. Phanees was known for his passion for education and his dedication to the community. His contributions will be deeply missed by his peers and students.

Foreign Language Requirement

DE CASA ESPANOL

Let us pursue some deeper analysis:

A.F.D.

Foreign Language Requirement

Let us pursue some deeper analysis:

A.F.D.
Macalester Challenges Resident Rulings

The Student Court, following the majority report of the Committee of the Macalester Student Residence Council, is to hear on Monday, March 19, the case of the eight students who have been denied the right to live in University housing units.

The case was referred to the Student Court by the President, Mr. Cutler, and is currently being heard by a three-man panel of the court.

The students involved are members of the Class of 1970, and their names are:

John A. Brown
Jim B. Cameron
David W. Cooper
Robert F. Crichton
William E. Dennis
John T. Fyfe
James R. Hogue
Robert W. Knight

The court will hear the case on Monday at 8 p.m. in the Assembly Hall.

ELECTION NEWS

Students For O'Dwyer
Committee Formed

A Students For O'Dwyer committee has been created at Macalester College, class of 1970, by the students in the first-year class. The committee, which has been organized to support the Democratic candidate for Governor of New York, Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller, has members from all parts of the college. The committee is chaired by Mr. O'Dwyer, and its members include:

John A. Brown
Jim B. Cameron
David W. Cooper
Robert F. Crichton
William E. Dennis
John T. Fyfe
James R. Hogue
Robert W. Knight

The committee has been organized to support Governor Rockefeller's campaign for re-election, and is a part of the larger Students For Rockefeller movement across the country. The committee is working to increase awareness of the issues at stake in the election and to encourage students to vote.

The committee will hold regular meetings to discuss current events and to plan future activities. They will also work to organize events and activities, such as rallies and forums, to support Governor Rockefeller's campaign.

The committee welcomes new members and encourages all students to become involved in the campaign. They can be reached at their office in the Student Union Building.
Booters Cop Opener; Lose Two Squeakers

The soccer team made its debut on Saturday, September 29 against Adelphi College. The team scored an aggregate of 10 goals, with only 2 goals against, to win the match 8-2.

Heartbreaker.... Iona 24, Marist 21

"If only we could complete a pass," Coach Jimmy Craig lamented. "If only we could get the ball in our zone." The Red Foxes were frustrated by the disciplined Iona defense, which prevented any scoring opportunities.

The game started well for Marist, with a goal in the first half. However, Iona capitalized on turnovers and scored 24-21.

On Thursday, October 1, Marist hosted its first home game against. The team continued to struggle, falling 1-0 to Iona.

On Saturday, October 3, Marist hosted Iona again. Despite being down 1-0 at halftime, Marist rallied to tie the game at 1-1. However, Iona scored late in the second half to win 2-1.

Harriers On The Move

The Marist Harriers had a tough start as they opened their season on Sat., Sept. 28 on the losing end of a triangular meet at home against St. John's and Fairfield University. The scores were 19-6 against St. John's and 21-14 against Fairfield.

Phill Cappio turned in an outstanding race to take third place in the 5-mile run with a personal best of 24:56. Teammate No. 2, running a strong 26:15, rounded out the scoring for Marist.

The team's next meet is scheduled for Oct. 12 at SUNY-Cortland. The Harriers are looking to improve their performance and build momentum for the remainder of the season.

Bill O'Reilly point out that the team's success in the last two meets was due to improved training and coaching. The coaches are working hard to ensure that all athletes are performing at their best.

The team is planning to compete in several meets leading up to the conference championships. With each race, they hope to gain valuable experience and momentum.

The Harriers will continue to focus on improving their performances, both individually and as a team.

The Viking Threatens to the Gridiron

Mount Vernon - Friday Night

The Mounties were close to the gridiron nearing the end of the season. With their performance, they are poised to make a statement in the upcoming games.

The Viking's late touchdown was enough to secure the win and move the team closer to their goals.

Bill O'Reilly, district correspondent, said that the Mounties are working hard to prepare for the upcoming games. The team is looking to improve their performance and continue their winning streak.

The Mounties will continue to focus on their performances, both individually and as a team, in the remaining games of the season.