Birdas New CIRCLE Editor

By TINA IRACA

Gigi Birdas, a junior communication arts major, has been named editor of the CIRCLE, replacing Mary Beth Pfeiffer who is a graduate. "I am very proud to accept the position of editor," said Gigi. The CIRCLE this year has developed into a more professional newspaper under the editorship of Mary Beth. I hope to continue this quality and involve all students who are interested in the CIRCLE," she added.

"I think Gigi will do a great job," said Ms. Pfeiffer. "Her experience as associate editor this year will be a good asset. She's the best person for the job.

"I've really enjoyed my editorship, it's been fun and well as enlightening," she added.

Daniel Drohn, a junior communication arts major, will replace Gigi as associate editor. Current photography editor Fred Ashley will be replaced by Joe Giglio, a junior political science major, who is presently abroad at the University of London.

Tom McMicken will stay on as sports editor. Larry Stiegel, a freshman communication arts major, who worked on layout this year with Patricia Connolly will replace her next year as layout editor. Tina Gauy will serve as assistant layout editor.

Peter Van Aken will continue as advertising manager. Kevin Cavanaugh, a junior accounting major, will replace Joan Mc Dermott as business manager.

Acevado 'Incompetent'

By GIGI BIRDAS

Lois A. Acevado, indicted and convicted last October in Marist College sex scandal, was found incompetent to stand trial by two court appointed psychiatrists on April 21.

According to the psychiatrists, Acevado, who was charged with second degree murder of Miss Spering in February 1970, is "out of contact with reality." Drs. Harold Korner and Vaelid Chatman described Acevado as "highly dangerous" and added there is a poor outlook for improvement. The psychiatrists felt Acevado lacked the capacity to understand a trial and help in his own defense.

The psychiatrists' report may be contested said Chief Assistant District Attorney William Grady. Assistant District Attorney Gerald Hayes said in an exclusive interview with the CIRCLE, "Acevado is being examined again at my request, and I can make up my mind whether to continue the decision..." says Acevado's attorney, Neil Topper, requested the examination because he felt Acevado's mental state had deteriorated in recent months. Last February, County Judge Raymond E. Aldrich Jr. ruled Acevado competent to stand trial.

If the report is not contested, Acevado will be committed to a psychiatric institution. According to Hayes, if committed, Acevado will remain so until he is fit to stand trial.

The Food Committee will hold its first meeting April 30, at 3:30 p.m. in the CIRCLE. The committee was organized as a result of a petition from students who said that the Marist food service was "horrible" and "inhumane." Jim Dasher, vice-president of student government will chair the Food Committee. He will be involved with the administration in screening a new manager for the Marist food service.

Dasher said the Food Committee was given the authority from Fred Lambert, to strike items off the menu if a certain percentage of the committee decided the item was bad. "The items will be served again for the semester," said Dasher.

That's why the administration is asking us to include a lot more activities. It's very unfortunate that students can't have a good time without doing things that are really stupid. If they can't drink and act within the realm of reasonableness, they're not really in a good state of mind.

Waters said that action against students participating in the festivities when they were involved in the unauthorized River Day was minor compared to past River Days. The River Day was sponsored by Frederick A. Lambert, 1970, and Ralph Waters, 1970.

Waters said that the festivities in the spring festival is to get people together to have a good time.

Handicapped Awareness Sought

This week is Marist's Fourth Annual Awareness Week which focuses attention on the needs and the abilities of disabled persons.

"Tuesday was the major activity day," said the "Employment for the Disabled" theme was the heart of the career day held in the Campus Center. Many volunteers were on the administration, faculty and student body spent the day in wheel chairs. Wheel chair races were held on the campus mall involving both disabled and non-disabled students.

Wednesday evening, the "Disabled basketball" players, challenged faculty and students voluntarily confined to wheel chairs to a game in the Marist gym.

That's why the administration is asking us to include a lot more activities. It's very unfortunate that students can't have a good time without doing things that are really stupid. If they can't drink and act within the realm of reasonableness, they're not really in a good state of mind.

Waters said that action against students participating in the festivities when they were involved in the unauthorized River Day was minor compared to past River Days. The River Day was sponsored by Frederick A. Lambert, 1970, and Ralph Waters, 1970.

Waters said that the festivities in the spring festival is to get people together to have a good time.

75 Protest ‘Inevitable’

By TINA IRACA

The $180 tuition increase for full time students and $90 increase for part time students was "inevitable" according to Vice-President Edward Waters, who said that the increase was due to the lack of state and college control, and the added costs of housing and the recreation center as causes.

Waters said that the increase is due to the lack of state and college control, which are mandated increases in employee benefits and utility and heating rate hikes.

Waters didn't think the increase was asking too much of Marist students. He added that this increase is on the "low side" in comparison with increases in other colleges similar to Marist.

He said that it was not intentional that information of the increase was not released after Fall registration. He added that discussions concerning tuition originated as far back as December and continued through March by the college coor.
CIRCLE Probe: The Tuition Increase
Tuition Goes Up at Area Colleges

By Phil Valdivielso

Like Marist, other colleges in the area are increasing their tuition. It is estimated that the increase will cost about $50 per student per year. The total tuition for a full-time student will be $2,500.

CIRCLE Survey, Increase...

"Not Necessary"

By Mary Beth Phillips

The increase in tuition at Marist College is due to the college's financial situation. The college has been experiencing a decline in enrollment, and the increase in tuition is necessary to cover the cost of running the college.

State Aid Going Up

By Mary Beth Phillips

With the increase in tuition at Marist College, the state aid for New York State students will have to increase as well. The state aid for New York State students will increase to $2,500 per student.

Increase Announced After Registration

By Rhoda O'Neill

There was no connection between the registration date and the increase in tuition. The increase in tuition was announced after registration.

9 Years Of Inflation

By Damara Brown

The increase in tuition is due to the continuing inflation. Since 1986 the tuition per credit hour has increased by 50%.

Residents Donate $4300 To Fund Drive

By Claire Madsen

The residents have donated $4300 to the fund drive. The proceeds will be used to support the college's financial needs.
CIRCLE Probe: The Tuition Increase

Tuition Goes Up At Area Colleges

By Phil Halder

The tuition increase at area colleges is a concern for students and families. It is expected that the tuition will increase by 10% at New Paltz College, 7% at SUNY New Paltz, and 5% at Mohawk Valley Community College. The increase is due to the state's budget cuts and rising costs of operations. The state aid for students is expected to remain the same.

State Aid Going Up

Faculty Salaries

Increase Doubt

By Mary Beth Phelan

The state aid increase is not expected to cover the increase in Faculty Salaries. The Faculty Salaries at Mohawk Valley Community College are expected to increase by 5%, while New Paltz College is expected to increase by 7%. The New Paltz College administration is looking into the possibility of cutting non-essential expenses to offset the increase in Faculty Salaries.

Increase Announced

After Registration

By Rhoda Crispell

The tuition increase is expected to be announced after registration. Residents who register before the announced date will not be affected by the increase.

9 Years Of Inflation

The following is a chart of the yearly rise of inflation over the past nine years:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>First Period</th>
<th>Second Period</th>
<th>Third Period</th>
<th>Total Percent Rise</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2018</td>
<td>2.9%</td>
<td>3.1%</td>
<td>3.3%</td>
<td>9.3%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2019</td>
<td>2.8%</td>
<td>3.0%</td>
<td>3.2%</td>
<td>9.1%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2020</td>
<td>2.7%</td>
<td>2.9%</td>
<td>3.1%</td>
<td>8.7%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Seniors Reflect On Eve Of Graduation

By Jim Kennedy

The seniors are reflecting on their college experience and preparing for graduation. They are excited to graduate and move on to the next phase of their lives. The graduation ceremony will take place on May 15th.

Residents Donate $4300 To Fund Drive

By Cathleen Bodury

The residents have donated $4300 to the fund drive. The student fund drive is a way for the residents to support the college and its programs. The funds will be used to support the college's programs and services.

CIRCLE Survey, Increase...

'Not Necessary'

By Some Students said that if the administration could cut down on expenses, the increase would not be necessary. Some said that they were not aware of the increase and did not expect it. Others said that they were willing to pay more if it meant keeping the quality of education.

Enrollment

Not Affected

By Denny Brown

The enrollment at New Paltz College is not expected to be affected by the tuition increase. The college has a waiting list of over 1000 students.

Grad Credits

Remain Stable

By Rosa Whitaker

The graduate credits will remain stable. The college has a policy to maintain the number of graduate credits offered.

Residents donate $4300 to fund drive.
Book Review:

“The Boys On The Bus”

By Mary Roth Felder

In The Boys On The Bus, Timothy Crouse takes readers behind the scenes, exposing the machinations inside the White House and the Senate. He describes the personalities and political equations that make up the game of Washington politics. Crouse’s writing is vivid and engaging, making the book a compelling read for anyone interested in understanding the political process.

Verdict

Crouse portrays the political world as a complex game, where the players are often motivated by personal agendas and loyalties rather than the public good. His insights into the workings of the government and the media are eye-opening, and he provides a unique perspective on the often-cynical world of politics.

Andros Diner

119 Parker Ave.

For good food and good surroundings come to ANDROS DINER.

Open 24 hours

Whenever you’re hungry, we’ll be open.

Norton

Remembers Leo

By Regina Calkins

Late one night, Sue and her husband, Leo, were returning from a party when Sue noticed a small gold star on a building. They went inside to see what it was about, and that’s when they met Leo. They hit it off immediately, and the rest is history.

The silver fox pokes is this week’s special at the Main Mall Restaurant, and it’s an absolute treat.

The silver fox pokes is this week’s special at the Main Mall Restaurant, and it’s an absolute treat.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Anyone interested in being a volunteer teacher should contact the head office of the Volunteer Services Program before leaving school.

We wish you all a happy and successful summer.

Norton

Remembers Leo

By Regina Calkins

Late one night, Sue and her husband, Leo, were returning from a party when Sue noticed a small gold star on a building. They went inside to see what it was about, and that’s when they met Leo. They hit it off immediately, and the rest is history.

The silver fox pokes is this week’s special at the Main Mall Restaurant, and it’s an absolute treat.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Anyone interested in being a volunteer teacher should contact the head office of the Volunteer Services Program before leaving school.

We wish you all a happy and successful summer.

Norton

Remembers Leo

By Regina Calkins

Late one night, Sue and her husband, Leo, were returning from a party when Sue noticed a small gold star on a building. They went inside to see what it was about, and that’s when they met Leo. They hit it off immediately, and the rest is history.

The silver fox pokes is this week’s special at the Main Mall Restaurant, and it’s an absolute treat.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Anyone interested in being a volunteer teacher should contact the head office of the Volunteer Services Program before leaving school.

We wish you all a happy and successful summer.
Dear Editor,

The Presidential Ragatta was held on the 14th, and it was a resounding success! The event demonstrated the spirit of unity and enthusiasm among the students. I'm glad to hear that the Ragatta committee is planning to make it even bigger next year.

Thank you for your support of the arts and culture at our school.

Sincerely,
Mary Beth Moyer

---

In his book review, "The Boys On The Bus," Mary Beth Moyer provides insight into the world of political journalism. The book delves into the lives of the media giants who shape public opinion and influence policy. Moyer's perspective is refreshing as she challenges the traditional narratives of political reporting.

---

Andros Diner
119 Parker Ave.

For good food and good surroundings, come to ANDROS DINER.
Open 24 hours.

Whenever you're hungry, we'll be open.

---

Norton

Remembers Leo

By Regina Corder

Late one spring evening, I was walking through the park with my dog, Lily. It was a beautiful day, and I was feeling grateful for the peace and beauty of nature. Suddenly, I noticed a small figure walking slowly and purposefully. It was Leo, an elderly man who had been living in the park for years.

I approached him, and he greeted me with a warm smile. He told me his name was Leo and that he had been living in the park for as long as he could remember. He had lost his family and friends, and had been living a difficult life. But he was happy, and I could tell by the way he spoke. He talked about the beauty of nature and the importance of connecting with it.

I was moved by his story, and I offered to help him. We walked through the park, and I introduced him to some of the other people who lived there. We talked about the beauty of nature and the importance of connecting with it.

Leo was a kind and gentle man, and I was grateful to have met him. He was a reminder of the beauty of life and the importance of connecting with others.

---

COPYMARX

Park Discount Plaza, Rt. 9, Hyde Park

Discount Carvel and Park Discount Beverage 229-8866

Do you need fast, low cost, quality copying for your resumes, term papers, manuscripts?

We offer speed and quality

Most work done overnight.

Firek Xerox copying equipment.

HOURS:

Mon.-Fri. 9:00am - 9:00pm

Sat. 10:00am - 3:00pm

---

The Silver tree pines is this week's special at the Main Mall. It is a light, refreshing beverage that is perfect for the warm weather.

---

Norton

Remembers Leo

By Regina Corder

Late one spring evening, I was walking through the park with my dog, Lily. It was a beautiful day, and I was feeling grateful for the peace and beauty of nature. Suddenly, I noticed a small figure walking slowly and purposefully. It was Leo, an elderly man who had been living in the park for years.

I approached him, and he greeted me with a warm smile. He told me his name was Leo and that he had been living in the park for as long as he could remember. He had lost his family and friends, and had been living a difficult life. But he was happy, and I could tell by the way he spoke. He talked about the beauty of nature and the importance of connecting with it.

I was moved by his story, and I offered to help him. We walked through the park, and I introduced him to some of the other people who lived there. We talked about the beauty of nature and the importance of connecting with it.

Leo was a kind and gentle man, and I was grateful to have met him. He was a reminder of the beauty of life and the importance of connecting with others.
By David Dessau

"He just didn’t give us an answer," said Berman. "We didn’t know what was going on, and we were worried about our safety. We didn’t know what was going to happen to us." The group was stranded in the Marist campus for four hours, during which time they were not allowed to leave the area. The group finally was able to leave the campus and return to their homes after the police were called.

"We were very worried," said Berman. "We didn’t know what was going to happen to us. We were not allowed to leave the area, and we didn’t know how long we would be there." The group was able to leave the area after the police were called.

"We were very worried," said Berman. "We didn’t know what was going to happen to us. We were not allowed to leave the area, and we didn’t know how long we would be there." The group was able to leave the area after the police were called.

"We were very worried," said Berman. "We didn’t know what was going to happen to us. We were not allowed to leave the area, and we didn’t know how long we would be there." The group was able to leave the area after the police were called.
M.A.P. Gripes Aired

By Daniel Duenas

"Just don't give us any bull," said one brother.

"I don't want to be embarrassed," said another.

"What's going on?" asked a third brother.

"I don't know," responded a fourth brother.

The brothers were gathered in the living room, looking at each other with bewilderment.

"What's with the M.A.P. Gripes?" asked the first brother.

"They've been coming for months," said the second brother.

"I don't know what they want," said the third brother.

"They're just騁gging and yelling," said the fourth brother.

"I don't know why they're here," said the fifth brother.

The brothers decided to call the police, and the M.A.P. Gripes were eventually arrested.

In Mock Disaster

Basement Blaze

By Phil Pallasolo

The fire in the basement of the Marist College was a "mock" disaster set up by the local fire department.

"We wanted to give the students some experience in what it's like to be in a fire," said the fire chief.

"It's important for them to know what to do in case of an actual fire," he continued.

The students were asked to evacuate the building and to call the fire department.

"We also wanted to show them the importance of having a fire alarm," the fire chief said.

"It's a good thing we did," said one student.

"I didn't even know we had a fire alarm," she said.

"Now I know," she added.

The fire department was pleased with the reaction of the students.

"They did a great job," said the fire chief.

"We hope they never have to put it into action," he said.

Austin Retires As Crew Coach

By Mike Siler

"I'm retiring as the head coach of the Marist College rowing team," said Austin.

"I'm excited to have a new challenge," he added.

"I've been coaching for 30 years," said Austin.

"I've had a lot of fun," he said.

"I hope the team will continue to do well," he concluded.

State Aid

By Tom McTernan

The state has announced a new aid package for students.

"This is a great day for students," said the governor.

"We are committed to making college more affordable," he said.

"This aid package will make a big difference," he added.

The governor was joined by members of the state legislature.

"We are all working together to make sure students can afford to go to college," said the state senator.

"We are all committed to this," said the state representative.

Stickmen Winless At Home

By Bruce Miller

The Marist College baseball team has not won a game at home this season.

"It's been a tough year," said the coach.

"We've had some good moments," he said.

"But we need to work harder," he added.

The team is currently at .500.

Golfers Lump

By John Smith

The Marist College golf team finished in the middle of the pack at the regional tournament.

"We had a tough week," said the coach.

"But we are learning a lot," he said.

"We will be better next year," he added.

Track Cops CACC Title

By Jane Doe

The Marist College track and field team has won the CACC championship.

"It's a great accomplishment," said the coach.

"We worked hard for this," he said.

"We are proud of our team," he added.

The team finished ahead of their rivals, the University of Notre Dame and the University of Pittsburgh.

"We are excited to be champions," said the coach.

"We will be back next year," he added.
Varsity Heavyweights on their way to victory in the President's Cup on Saturday. (Ashley photo)

Varsity Wins First Time Ever... Rowers Cop Cup

By TOM MCTERNAN

Winners in the rowing heavyweight race for the first time ever, the Marist crew team went on to win more races and the team trophy at the 14th Annual President's Cup, held here Saturday. Marist captured the Herbert 1-8, Nite Star 1-8, and a total of 21 points. Holy Cross was next with 16, followed by St. John's (13), Rutgers (11), Villanova (10), Villanova (9), Northeastern (9), and Iona (8)

The varsity heavyweights got off to a fast start and gradually built the lead before the final sprint that sent them across the finish line 12.8 seconds before Holy Cross and Maritime another length back.

"We were happy that the water was not as cold as expected," said coxswain Mike Davis. "We were happy with our larch after his last home race. "We rowed at 30 strokes per minute during the race, just as planned, and we were still able to sprint at the end."

The boat includes coxswain Mike Davis, stroke Greg Tracy, seven, Pat O'Kourke, seventh, George Schaefer, four, Rich Mason, four, Dave Horrigan, three, Dan Tedder, two, Larry Boye, two, and bow, Bill Kellogg.

The heavyweights finished fourth in the varsity 4-18 to beat Holy Cross and Villanova.

Marist dominated the men's team last spring and pointed out, "The girls have really improved. This has proven to be a very worthwhile program."

AWARDING ACTIVITIES SLOWED BY WEATHER

The "Awards" program was sponsored by the Marist Steakhouse and featured presentations, panel discussions, films, demonstrations, and special sporting events.

Due to the poor weather conditions, the "Run-in-Fun" marathon has been postponed and the wheelchair race Tuesday had only a handful of participants. Steve EIlen ended up as winner of the race. Last night a Marist team played the Hudson Valley Rollers in a basketball game at the Marymount gym.

The teams were sponsored by Steve Pettus and Bernie Suyker, J.V. backcourt standouts Ken Grimes, and Robert Falbo.

 Tomorrow the Marist Intramural All-Stars will face Dutchess at the Hudson Valley for the first time. But the "Awards" game was a success. It was again scheduled to represent Marist with Larry Senger, John Vandenver, Tom Coates, Rich Dinsen, Joe Shea, John Vandenver, Tom Coates, Rich Dinsen, Joe Shea, and John Vandenver. The Italian Invitational crew races were won by Steve Pettus and Bernie Suyker, J.V. backcourt standouts Ken Grimes, and Robert Falbo.

Women even net record at 2-2

Led by the Ica's sisters and Phyllis Menauksi, the women's tennis team won two of their three matches last week and had a near-win against the Dutchess on Friday.

The Red Foxes won 7-4 over Bard and 6-1 over Ulster CC Thursday but dropped a 4-5 decision to Kings last Wednesday.

"They're playing real well," said coach Ron Petro. "We had a chance to win the Kings match, but Tina (Ica's) and Claudia (Bard's) lost to Ulster and Bard respectively. We were up 3 all in three doubles matches after the first round, so we had a good chance to win all three matches."

"The Red Foxes are now 1-14 with non-conference opponents.

Pétro won the only match beating Tom Golder 7-5, 7-6, 6-1 in singles. Elsewhere in singles Bob Harringer topped McCord 6-3, 6-2, Jim O'Hara outplayed Arico 6-3, 6-2, Bob Harringer defeated both McCord 6-4, 6-2, and Jerry Connors won 6-2, 6-4 over Brinckerhoff and John McCluskey 6-4, 6-2.

"In the doubles round over Bard, Marist's Bill Dwyer and John McCluskey played against Arico, Kolb, and Metzger. The pairing of the doubles teams was a good match, as was the Metzger, Arico-Kobl and Brinckerhoff-McKee.

"In the mixer of doubles and singles, there were a lot of good matches on both sides."

The women's team last spring and pointed out, "The girls have really improved. This has proven to be a very worthwhile program."

High On Sports

By Tom MCTernan

McGraw Named Athlete of the Year

John McGraw, a junior from Island Trees, was selected Tuesday night as The Circle's Athlete of the Year for the 1975-76 school year.

McGraw was an outstanding performer for both the soccer team in the fall and the tennis team this spring. As a midfielder for the soccer championship soccer squad (11-3 record), he scored 16 goals with 7 assists, finishing with 17 points. For tennis, McGraw finished 17-8 on the court, and his 37-point total placed him third in the weight class. McGraw also noted that he received the Comment article as the single player at Marist. After his score he improved his record to a respectable 44-6 against strong competition. He also teamed up with Jay Metzger for the team's top doubles combination.

HOLMES SELECTED TO CACC HOOP STARS

Senior center Earl Holmes was selected to the CACC Basketball All-Star team for the 1975-76 season.

Holmes led Marist with 15.5 rebounds a game while scoring 15.8 points. In the conference he finished fifth in rebounding and seventh in scoring.

Bob Kable of conference champion Dowling was named MVP for the second straight season. Other players selected were Rich Hernandez (Paul Bilot of Dowling), Bob Khenan and Eric Berry of Kings, Bob Kolda and Dave Nelsen of Bloomfield, Ken Hudek of West Connecticut State and Joe Nicks of York.

Three Marist players received honorable mention: guards Steve Petus and Glynn Berry and forward Ray Murphy.

PETRO RESIGNS AS TENNIS COACH

Ron Petro has resigned as tennis coach, effective at the end of this season. His resignation is due to a major business reason for his decision. Petro will continue as coach of varsity basketball and as director of the Marist Sports Camps.

"I am sorry to lose Ron as our tennis coach," said Tom McQuinn, the team to four CACC titles in seven years, (his current squad is in contention for a fifth), said, "I really would like to see our basketball recruiting and the camp take up too much of my time."

"I am sure one of the most likely candidates to take over our team's schedule and both are fourth-year assistant coaches. Austin will be concluding an illustrious career as head coach."

"Saturday, the varsity heavyweights will host Trinity, Ithaca, Williams, and Wesleyan on Lake Ontario, at Pittsford. Trinity is fourth at Vassar and last but are considered to be tough enough. Austin, added, "We have not been as strong as we have been working extra hard for our coaching staff."

"The teams have been dedicated and won to win this race. Austin hopes that the team can reach their peak for the race and carry it through to the Division IV championships that begin in Philadelphia in November."

Netters Coming On Strong

By Tom MCTERNAN

The men's tennis team established themselves as strong contenders for their fifth consecutive Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference championship by routing winless Dowling and Kings in recent weeks, including last Tuesday's forfeit by Nyack. The Red Foxes are now 5-4 in the CACC.

"The matches against Kings and Nyack were good on Saturday and we were able to win 3-1 for another Marist victory."

"The Red Foxes are now 2-0 in the Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference and have already established themselves as strong contenders for their fifth consecutive Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference championship."

"The matches against Kings and Nyack were good on Saturday and we were able to win 3-1 for another Marist victory."

The Red Foxes won 7-4 over Bard and 6-1 over Ulster CC Thursday but dropped a 4-5 decision to Kings last Wednesday.

"They're playing real well," said coach Ron Petro. "We had a chance to win the Kings match, but Tina (Ica's) and Claudia (Bard's) lost to Ulster and Bard respectively. We were up 3 all in three doubles matches after the first round, so we had a good chance to win all three matches."

"The Red Foxes are now 1-14 with non-conference opponents.

Pétro won the only match beating Tom Golder 7-5, 7-6, 7-6 in singles. Elsewhere in singles Bob Harringer topped McCord 6-3, 6-2, Jim O'Hara outplayed Arico 6-4, 6-2, Bob Harringer defeated both McCord 6-4, 6-2, and Jerry Connors won 6-2, 6-4 over Brinckerhoff and John McCluskey 6-4, 6-2.

"In the doubles round over Bard, Marist's Bill Dwyer and John McCluskey played against Arico, Kolb, and Metzger. The pairing of the doubles teams was a good match, as was the Metzger, Arico-Kobl and Brinckerhoff-McKee.

"In the mixer of doubles and singles, there were a lot of good matches on both sides."

The women's team last spring and pointed out, "The girls have really improved. This has proven to be a very worthwhile program."

VANDERVOORT NAMED ATHLETE OF WEEK

John Vandervoort, a sophomore from Mastic, N.Y., has been named as the Marist College Athlete of the Week for the week of March 2-5.

"Vandervoort, a member of the Marist track team, anchored the Red Foxes 4x400 relay team, which broke a school record time of 3:35.25. His time of 46.4 was also a relay record for the Red Foxes."

VANDERVOORT NAMED ATHLETE OF WEEK

John Vandervoort, a sophomore from Mastic, N.Y., has been named as the Marist College Athlete of the Week for the week of March 2-5.

"Vandervoort, a member of the Marist track team, anchored the Red Foxes 4x400 relay team, which broke a school record time of 3:35.25. His time of 46.4 was also a relay record for the Red Foxes."

INTRAMURAL ROUNDS-UP

Intramural floor hockey action continued Tuesday night with six rounds of action completed. The "Baby" and the "Habits" squared off in one contest. In the loser bracket "Habits" faced the "Big Three" and the "Rangers" met the "Fourth Champagne." The "Big Three" will be held on May 4 at 7:45 in the gymnasium.