

Parents' Day — Sunday Apr. 23

Sunday, April 23, will mark the occasion of the first annual Parents' Day to be held at Marist College. The main objective of this event is to acquaint the parents with the college, faculty, and curriculum of their sons. The day will begin at 10:00 A.M. with a special Mass in Our Lady of Wisdom Chapel. A Communion

Spring Weekend

Under the supervision of the Student Council, plans have been formulated for a spring weekend, which would take place on the 19th, 20th, and 21st, of May. It has been planned as a salute to the graduating Seniors. The Freshman, Sophomore and Junior classes will each sponsor a particular event during the three days.

The Freshman class will sponsor an informal party to be held Friday night at the Polish-American Club.

Saturday evening, the Juniors will hold a semi-formal dance in the Hudson River Room of the Poughkeepsie Inn. The second annual Sophomore clam-bake will take place Sunday afternoon at the Marist park in Platikill, New York.

Futher details of the weekend will be posted in weeks to come.

Theatre Guild Presents

For its first production, the newly formed Marist College Theatre Guild will present The Wise Have Not Spoken, by Paul Vincent Carroll. The play concerns the Mac Elory family and the Breakfast will be served in the main Dining Hall. After breakfast, time will be allotted for each student to give his parents a personal tour of the campus. In this way, the student will be able to stress any section of the campus of particular interest to his parents.

At 2:00 P.M. the Marist College Theatre Guild will present a special production of their latest play, The Wise Have Not Spoken, by Paul Vincent Carroll.

An informal social in the Student Lounge will conclude the official activities of the day. At this time, faculty members will be present to explain and discuss the College curriculum. Gary Smith '63, student chairman of the day reports that ticket returns are fair. It is hoped that all will participate in order to make the day a complete success and to assure the continuance of this event as an annual affair.

The committee for the day consists of: Bill Mc Intyre, Mass; John Buscemi, Breakfast; James Pizzani, tour; Dan Verrico, Play; Phil Bruno, Social; Jim Callahan, Programs; Gary Smith and Bill Gorman, co-chairmen of the entire program.

Parents' tickets will be available until Wednesday. Student tickets will be on sale throughout the entire week.

THEATER GUILD (cont. from p.1)

trouble they go to to keep from losing their farm. The cast is headed by Ann Antonioli as Una, Tom McAndrew as Peter and Jerry McKenna as Francis. The rest of the cast, in their order of appearance are: John McLaughlin as Redfern, Walt Bunten as Langley, Dick Kearney as Paddy Ardee, James Coombs as Tiffney, Tom Connolly as Mulligan, Dan Verrico as Rafferty, Kathleen Martin as Catherine, and Dave Reitter as the policeman.

The technical staff consists of Jim Callahan, Pete Bruno, Gary Smith and John Buscemi. The set designer is Tom Connolly and the house manager is Pete Hanley.

The play is directed by Mr. James Britt, and his assistant is Emil Oesterling. The producer is James Coombs and the stage manager is Dan Verrico. The faculty advisor for the group is Bro. Joseph E. Luce Mataiese is in charge of make-up and Ellie Melod is prop director. Other St. Francis girls participating in this production are: Euren Judge, Mary Crowe, Francis Adams, and Linda Suttom.

A full dress rehearsal of the play will be presented Thursday evening, and the students of the area high schools have been invited to attend. Public performances will take place Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:15 P.M. Tickets are on sale in the College Bookstore.

REYNARD'S RECORD

A weekly newspaper published by and for the students of Marist College on every Tuesday of the school year, exclusive of vacation and examination periods.

Editor: Charles Council
 Business Manager: James Coombs
 Copy Editor: James Callahan
 Circulation Editor: James Pizzani

Advisor: George Sommer, M.A.

Vol. 1 no. 6

April 18, 1961

Intramurals

by James Pizzani

The Freshmen Boarders and the Freshmen Day-Hop I team tied for first place in the Intramural Basketball league. Each team boasted an eight and one record. The Boarders were led by the high scoring of Bob VanAernem and John dela Rosa, and John Romeo bolstered the boards. The Day-Hop team was sparked by Joe Spada, Fred Weiss and Hughie Reynolds.

In closing out the season, it would be appropriate to praise the students who refereed and Doctor Hooper who was in charge of the Intramural program.

Next week, the Intramural program turns to softball. The Freshmen Boarders, the Freshmen Day-Hops, and the Upperclassmen will each enter one team. Each squad will play the other four times. The playoff games are scheduled for the last week of May.

crew at clark

This Saturday, Marist College makes its entrance into the ranks of inter-collegiate rowing at Worcester, Mass., in a dual meet with Clark University.

Coach Catanzaro's tentative first boat contains: #1, Phil Cullum; #2, Tom Ertz; #3, John Doss; #4, Walt Herbst; #5, Tony Rotolo; #6, Ed DiSanto; #7, Tony Campilli; stroke, Ken Knapp; coxswain, Gary Smith.

We wish the crew the best of luck and hope that they bring home a win for the Marist red and white.

Juniors Receive Rings

Last Saturday, April 15, the Junior class received their class rings at the annual Ring Ceremony, in Seat of Wisdom Chapel. The blessing of the rings was performed by Fr. Casimir Zvirblis, O.P., and was followed by a short talk given by Fr. Aldo J. Tos. This presentation, the highlight of the year for the Juniors, was attended by their parents and friends.